

Game and Fish

BY ARN COULSON

One of the finest magazines that comes into my house pertaining to outdoor and federation business is the magazine put out by the Windsor Sportsmen's News.

This magazine is passed on to me by Paul Coulson our representative to the O.F.A.H. There is an article in the Nov. issue we think represents the feelings of all true sportmen, written by a Windsor Sportsman, Guy Peters, it goes like this.

"We are sportsmen, seeking recreation through hunting and fishing, attempting to harvest some of the fish, game birds and animals which nature has provided. We are not killers, murderers of birds and animals, as we are sometimes looked on. It is not food for the table that we seek. If this be the object, it would be far more economical to go to the local supermarket and purchase your needs, it is recreation we are after. Through the healthy sport of hunting and fishing. Yes there are slob hunters, and fish hogs, not sportsmen but meat hunter. But you find law breakers in all walks of life.

Sportsmen are conservationists. Our object is to preserve our wildlife for the future. We are the first to recognize an endangered species of fish, bird or animal and seek protection and preservation of the same.

One of the main functions of the Department of Natural Resources is to provide recreation for the public, the take in game birds and animals has been very low, but the recreation from it has been very high.

The sport of shooting ranks high as one of the continents' recreational pursuits. It was born of the basic needs of our pioneers for food, clothing and defense. We can honestly say that Canadians in both wars, were among the finest riflemen in the world. We at the Halton Sportsmen Association think that in most cases our recent gun laws are basically fair, and the club as a whole are happy to see the government get on with it.

Dec. 16 was the day of our annual turkey shoot and beef draw. A large crowd of sharpshooters and lucky shot competitors walked away from the club with a record 91 turkeys.

The winner of our draw for a side of beef was Robert King, second prize went to Carl Mays and third prize was won by Bill Knapp.

One of the pleasures of being allowed to write a weekly column is the comments I receive on my views about hunting, fishing and outdoor activity, not always complimentary I assure you. But all welcome nevertheless. Thank you one and all. May you have your best year yet, outdoors, in the greatest country in the world.

Tridents slam New Hamburg Towers to claim 19-1 season record of wins

It's sounding like a broken record. Milton Tridents Intermediate "B" hockey club tallied two more victories to their league leading total this week with a 10-4 win over New Hamburg's Wilmot Towers in New Hamburg Thursday and slapped rival Paris 29-ers 7-4 in Milton Memorial Arena last Tuesday.

There were no games over the Christmas week.

Gord Lyons and Don Hearn accomplished plenty of damage around the New Hamburg net as Hearn, in his second league game back with Tridents, counted a hat trick and four assists. Lyons had two goals and five assists and Ken Fay, a steady local, scored four goals. Defenceman Marty Seeds scored a single with Bill Sherlock assisting.

Tridents were without the services of defencemen John Arnold, Rob Frame and goaltender Terry Cole. Gary Richardson, Chuchmach and Hymers were also absent. Chuchmach is sitting out a three game suspension for butt ending.

The win counts a 19-1 win-loss record.

Captain Lorne Lesuk was the big gun Dec. 19 at home with three goals and an assist. Bill Sherlock had three assists.

Paris put the locals at the ropes in the first period claiming a 3-1 lead. Gord Lyons scored the first Milton goal from Don Hearn. Paris had Larry Henbuck scoring twice and Brian Belair once in the opening period.

Bill McGilloway and Gary Richardson scored one each for Milton in the second frame with assists going to Don and Doug Hearn and Ken Fay.

With the tally even at 3-3, Tridents came alive in the third period dropping four goals into the Paris net. Lesuk potted the go ahead goal at 18:51 from Jim Robertson and Sherlock. He added his second at 12:01 and assisted on a third at 3:46.

Paris issued a final effort at 1:26 but Lesuk answered unassisted with 27 seconds remaining to play.
