REPRESENTATIVE CONTRIBUTOR SERVICES

Ducks Unlimited (Canada) a dynamic private waterfowl conservation organization requires a Representative for its Contributor Services activities in Eastern Canada.

This is a senior position reporting directly to the Corporation's Executive Vice-President. The primary function will be to provide guidance and direct consultation to existing Ducks Unlimited (Canada) fund-raising committees, and secondarily to insure compliance with reporting procedures for fund-raising activities, supply contributor information and other reports as required.

The successful candidate will be keenly interested in waterfowl and the preservation of waterfowl habitat in Canada. Preference will be shown to persons with a waterfowl/wildlife management background. Optionally, a strong background in marketing and promotional activities gained through a broad exposure to the business community over a 5 to 10 year period, coupled with a strong interest in the resource would be required to meet the position objectives. Any additional administrative experience related to similar fund-raising activities would be an asset, as would be fluency in both official languages.

Ducks Unlimited (Canada) offers a wide variety of benefits and competitive salaries.

Please reply in confidence, stating salary expectations, by August 10, 1979, to:
