Wedding

Ferrier-Mowat

LISA AND BILL Ferrier are shown cutting the wedding cake at a reception held recently in their honor.

Lisa Ann Mowat was wed to William George Ferrier V at Hopedale Presbyterian Church, Oakville, June 30.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James William Mowat of 298 Elmwood Cres., Milton, and the groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ferrier of 84 Carrington Crt., Ancaster.

The bride is from Milton and the groom who is a constable with the Saugeen Police Department in Southampton, resides at 192 Barker St., Port Elgin.

The ceremony was double ring, presided by Rev. Rod Lewis.

The bride's attendants wore pale green dresses with flowered jackets.

Joyce Wood of Milton, a close friend to the bride, was matron of honor. Siobhan Corner of Milton, another close friend, and Louise Ferrier of Ancaster, a sister to the groom, were bridesmaids.

Patti Reynard of Milton, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. James Mowat gave the bride away.

Robert St. Clair of Hamilton, the groom's best friend, was his best man.

Patrick Wood of Milton and Rod Beaumont of Georgetown, close friends of the groom, were ushers.

The dinner reception-dance was held at Estaminet on Lakeshore Rd., Burlington, in the evening. Ninety people attended.

The master of ceremonies was Richard Crowell, the bride's brother-in-law.

The newlywed couple honeymooned in Niagara Falls. They have returned to live at the groom's residence in Port Elgin.

The wedding cake was made by the groom's mother, Mrs. Edyth Ferrier.

The groom had previously been employed by the Halton Region Police Department. The ushers are members of the force.

The bridesmaid's gowns were handmade. Special guests at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. G. Golden, grandparents to the groom; Mrs. Isobel Wright and two daughters, and friends from California.

Two miscellaneous showers were held: one by Mrs. Kay Roser of Hamilton and Mrs. Mary Reynard of Milton.
