(There Is Love)

INCORPORATING the music to Wedding Song in their portrait are Christine Penrice and Gregory Cracknell. The two were married at Emmanuel Baptist Church Sept. 15.

Wedding

Cracknell — Penrice

Emmanuel Baptist Church was the setting of a double ring wedding ceremony Sept. 15 when Christine Dale Penrice and Gregory Paul Cracknell were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Penrice and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Cracknell, all of Milton. Dr. J.R. Armstrong performed the ceremony.

mer piano teacher of the bride, soloist.

Mrs. Debbie Fogwell, cousin of the bride was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ginny Penrice, sister of the bride; Misses Lori VanBuskirk and Lorraine Fehr, friends of the bride. The best man was Nick Miles, friend of the groom. Ushers were Glenn Cracknell brother of the groom; Jeff Peirce, brother of the bride; and Brian Cracknell, brother of the groom.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Dorothy Penrice, aunt of the bride, organist; Miss Linda Penrice, cousin of the bride, pianist; and Mrs. Judy Hunter, for-

Institute debates sponsoring children

The October meeting of Nassagaweya WI was held at the home of Mrs. Hans Heist. Mrs. Sharon Anderson, president, opened the meeting with a poem entitled "Thanksgiving". Mrs. Margaret Currie gave the secretary and treasurer's report in the absence of Mrs. Auty.

Achievement Day on Nov. 21 at E.C. Drury School. District Day is Nov. 6 at Ligny Hall. The District Annual meeting will be held on Thursday, May 3 at Hillcrest United Church.

Mrs. Dave Dillion introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Longhurst of St. Catharines who is with World Vision. She gave a talk on her trips and work with children in the "Third World", explaining how sponsorship is done. A friendly discussion took place afterwards in which Mrs. Longhurst answered questions.

The roll call was "What do we think about sponsoring a Third World Child?" Members expressed many feelings both pro and con and much discussion took place. Mrs. Heist had several letters, pictures of children, report cards on a bulletin board. These were from Mrs. Haines, a local resident whose family sponsors several children in different parts of the Third World.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Dillion and Mrs. Mayes. The next meeting is open to the public and is to be held on Nov. 14 at Brookville Community Centre at 8 p.m. The guest speaker will be Mrs. A. Fisher, the new principal at Brookville School, who will speak on the rights of the child.

Mrs. Isham honored at retirement party

Years of service to the retarded from the first adult workshop in a farm garage, were recognized Thursday when a reception was given for Mrs. Wyn Isham retiring as director of ARC Industries.

Friends and well wishers filled the room and a gift of an ink-sketch by Marjorie Nazer of the old Hornby school, now ARC Industries, and a watch were presented by Mike Evans, president of North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded.

Mayor Pete Pomeroy also presented a gift from the town.

The workshop was started by Mrs. Isham and her late husband Harry in 1965, with only three retarded adults, repairing and rewebbing lawn chairs.

In 1966 Esquesing council sold the Hornby school for one dollar, with the proviso it would always be used for the retarded of North Halton.

By 1968 there were 14 trainees, and in 1979 an addition was built at the rear, increasing capacity to 31. Another addition is planned to increase the workshop capacity to 45 trainees.

Some graduates of the workshop are now self-supporting in the community, and frequently return to visit the school and staff.

The affection in which she is held by the trainees was obvious at the reception.

MRS. WYNIFRED ISHAM is presented with a watch and a sketch of ARC Industries building, the former Hornby schoolhouse done by Marjorie Nazer at a reception honoring her on her retirement as director of the adult workshop. Mike Evans, president of the North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded, presents the gifts.

FIRST AID PRIORITIES

St. John Ambulance says there are priorities in first aid. First, make sure a casualty is breathing, stop severe bleeding, treat for shock, then treat burns and bone injuries.

Mrs. Tinker speaks to group

Mrs. A. Tinker of Oakville was the welcome guest and speaker at the October Meeting of the Anglican Church Women of St. Luke's Church in Palermo.

In her interesting and informative talk which she accompanied between the many parishes withing the Diocese of Niagara and the Diocese of Athabasca, through prayer, communication, and visitations.

The Tinker family had spent a summer vacation camping in the Land of the Mighty Peace and in the Land of the Midnight Twilight.

The speaker spoke in glowing terms of the warm friendship extended to them in visits to Peace River, Grande Prairie, Smokey River, High Prairie, Sorrento and many other places.

Services had been attended at many of the small, well-kept churches along the way and Mrs. Tinker told of the joy evidenced in the Sabbath worship, of the participation by the young people, and said that time upon time the whole family realized that throughout a service "The Lord was there."

The listeners were transported to great forests and to rich farming country and to the shores of the Peace River as they viewed the holiday pictures presented by Mrs. Tinker. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. M. Flint and thanked by the President, Mrs. R. Cripps, who also presented her with a guest remembrance.

Mrs. Cripps presided at the meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. R. Cowan, and which opened with a devotional period.

Reports were presented by the various officers and correspondence was furnished by Mrs. M. Flint.

Christmas greetings were written during the afternoon to Abdoulaye, the African boy adopted by the ACW to mark the International Year of the Child. It was a crisp, clear October day as the members appreciated the magnificent color display on the trees surrounding the home of the hostess, and, on a day with a nip in the air they also appreciated the generous gifts of knitting in the form of toques, mittens, scarves and such, done by Mrs. Hignnett and Mrs. Proud.

The knitted articles were on display for all to see and will be turned over to the Princess Maragret Hospital in Toronto through the Cancer Society, and also to the Unitarian Services of Canada.

Tea was served following the closing prayers with Mrs. W.S. Noble thanking Mrs. Cowan for her gracious hospitality.

Members were advised the next meeting would be held at the home of Mrs. R. Cripps, with all members bringing shower gifts of groceries for use at St. Mathew's House in Hamilton.

Christmas fairyland theme

The Women's Auxiliary of the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto will be holding its annual open house on Tuesday, Nov. 19.

The theme for the open house is A Christmas Fairyland. It will be held at the nurses' residence, 180 Elizabeth St., Toronto, from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

On sale at the open house will be an assortment of crafts including sweaters, smocked dresses, Christmas decorations, home-made dolls, preserves, and baked goods... including a special of baked goods made with natural ingredients only.

Of special interest is a recipe for plum rum jam given by Tommy Thompson, general director of the Metro Toronto Zoo. All proceeds from the sale go to the hospital auxiliary, formed 29 years ago to assist the hospital, and numbering about 250 members.

Coffee and pastries will be available in the tea room. Free babysitting is available. A special Christmas card, designed for the International Year of the Child and sold by the Auxiliary, will be available.
