DEEP WOOD PANELLING gives a feeling of richness and warmth to the living room. The room is just the right size for small gatherings of close friends. The large bay window, not seen, gives plenty of light to the room.

THE FAMILY ROOM has enough space for a large family to relax in comfort. Off to the right (not seen) is another part of the room that can be partitioned off and used as a playroom or an office, is so desired.

ALUMINUM AND BRICK make this house in Dorset Park such an attractive one from a visual standpoint. From a practical standpoint, the paved driveway and wooden fencing also contribute. The home is listed with Bayley-MacLean Real Estate Ltd. at $69,900.

Family-style home has swimming pool

With an in-ground swimming pool and a separate fenced off area, this home is one which will appeal to the entire family.

Located in Dorset Park area, the home features three bedrooms and a finished downstairs.

Adjacent to the kitchen is the dining area. Together, the two make a large area for preparing and eating meals.

Also on the main floor is the living room. The 16 x 12 foot room is just big enough to comfortably house furniture, yet not so big that the homey atmosphere is lost.

The living room is wall papered on two walls with a large bay window at the front and deep wood panelling on the other wall.

Upstairs is a four-piece bathroom and three bedrooms. The master bedroom measures 13 x 12 feet.

Downstairs is a laundry room and a two-piece bathroom.

In addition, there is an L-shaped family room, already wallpapered and carpeted.

If one part of the room is not needed, it can be partitioned off and used as an office, playroom or fourth bedroom.

The lot measures 50 x 120 feet and comes with a large patio in the back yard, a garage and paved driveway.

The house, a brick and aluminum back-split, is listed with Bayley MacLean Real Estate Ltd. at $69,900.
