

Gift of Love

BEST GIFT IS GIFT OF LOVE
By Wendy Melanson,

Gr. 5, St. Peter's School.

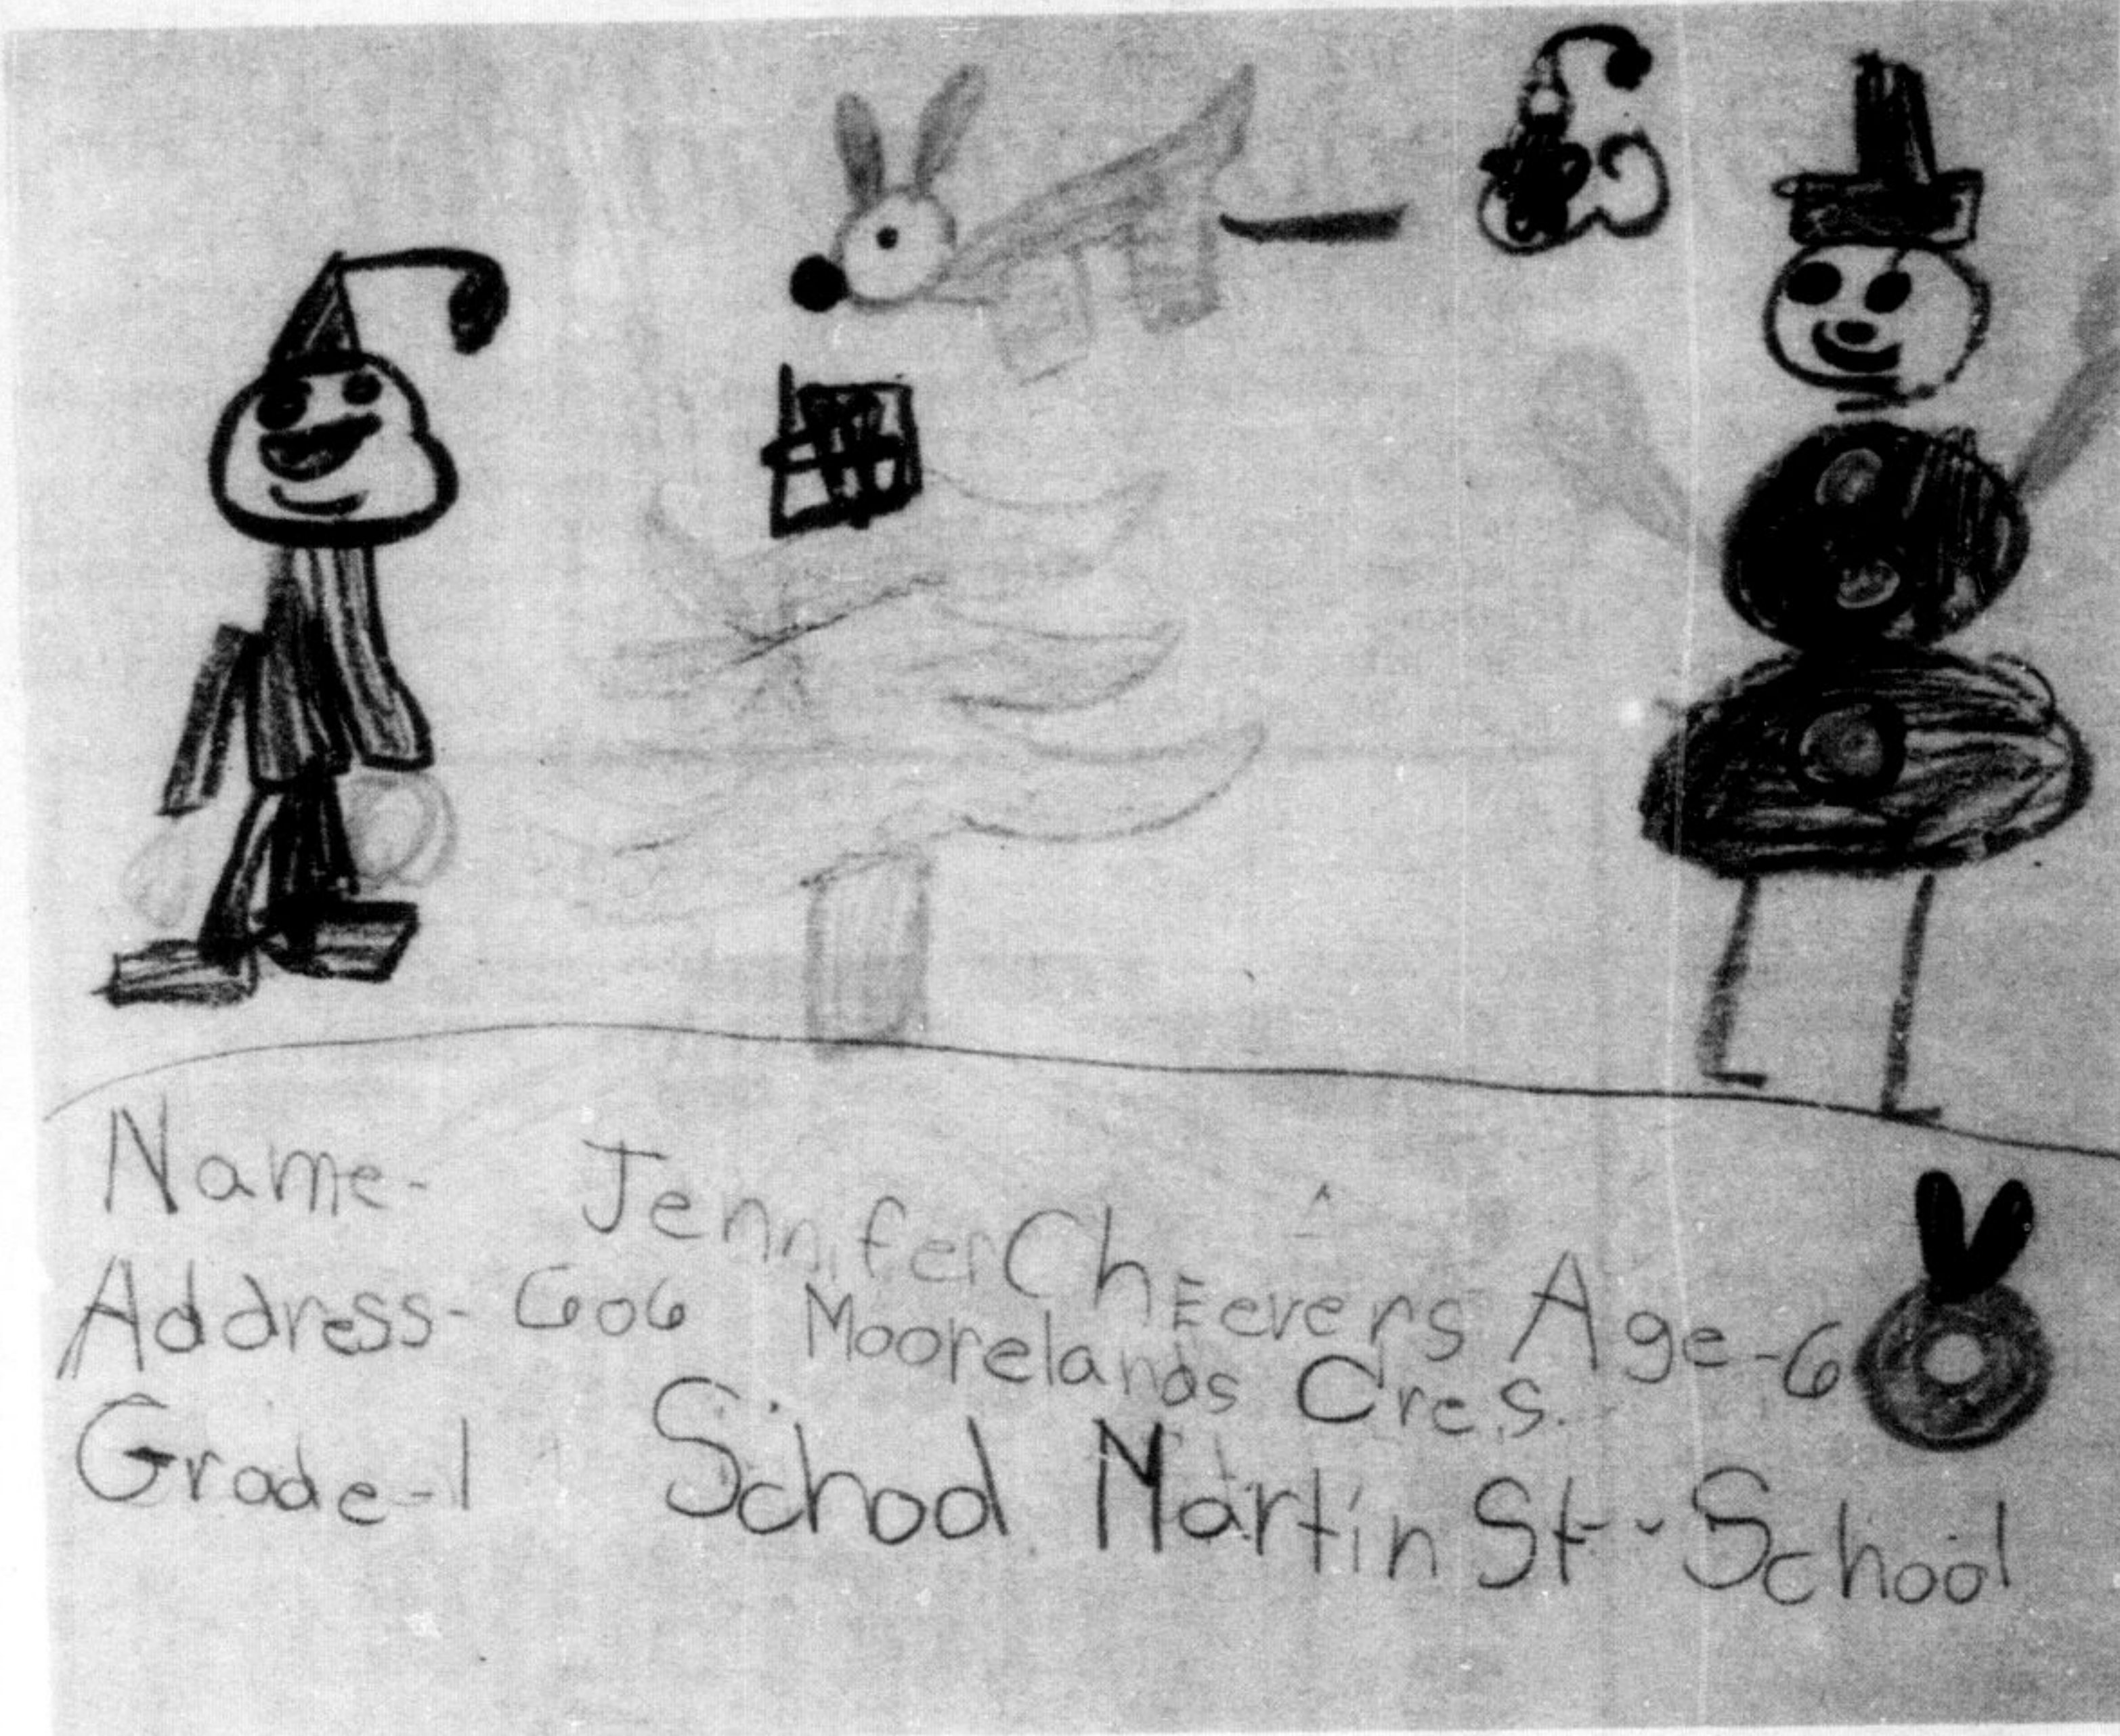

Christmas is a time to give not to receive. You should not take presents for granted. It is a time to share with others, not only at Christmas but the whole year through. Christmas is a time to be happy and a time to love others. You should be thankful for the gifts you get, and share them. Christmas is not just bought gifts. The best gifts you could give are gifts of love or laughter. This is what Christmas.

WONDERFUL TIME FOR POOR, HUNGRY
By Melanie Hollidge,
11, of 438 Kingsleigh Ct.,
Gr. 6, Holy Rosary School.

Christmas means a time sharing and giving. Christmas is a time for laughing and singing. Christmas is a time for being loving and caring.

Christmas is a time to remember Jesus's birthday. Christmas is a family time. Christmas is a time to remember the poor and the lonely. If I had a wish it would be so that all the hungry and poor would have enough to eat and would have a wonderful Christmas. Christmas is a happy time. Christmas is sitting around the fireplace and telling stories of old St. Nick. Christmas is going to Midnight Mass and hearing the word of God.

JENNIFER CHEEVERS has Santa and a reindeer, snowmen and a tree in her Christmas drawing. Jennifer is 6, of 606

Moorelands Cres., and a grade 1 student at Martin St. School.

Christmas Message from Julian Reed

"At this Christmas Time of 1979, the world seems faced with challenges which are going to demand from each one of us a renewed awareness of the values that have given us a country to live in that can still carry the message of peace and goodwill to all the world.

Let us remember the message brought by the one whose birth we celebrate and apply it to those challenges and may the season represent a renewal for us all.
