G. Tielemans won 5 for 102, T. Bousfield, 7 for 102, B. Villeneuve, 2 for 99, P. Vandenhoeve 7 for 99, M. Vandenoorn 5 for 97, J. Vascotto 0 for 96, T. Sievers 0 for 95, F. Halk.

ment as they came away from the week long competition to edge Milton 3-2 in the final game of their series to pick up their second ever crown.

Faced by the tournaments Most Sportsmanlike Player (Sportsmanship, ability and attitude), Darren Burford the Bantam Thunderbirds were flying high as they made their chances pay off netting three markers and holding on while allowing Milton only a pair.

Thornhill netted the only marker in the first period of their contest and held on to the lead until the 6:22 mark of the middle stanza when Bob Landry netted his first of two goals for Milton to tie the count.

Thornhill replied with a pair of goals late in the second period and early in the third to take control of the contest keeping Milton to just a single tally in the final eight minutes giving them their first division since 1973.

On their way to the 'B' championship Thornhill sidelined Woodstock 11-9 after overtime coming from behind after losing the first contest 5-3 to score an 8-4 win in the second game. The Thunderbirds also ousted Burlington taking the first game 6-2 and tying the second 2-2.

Milton outdid the host Georgetown entry 6-2 in their total goal semi-final with the teams splitting games, Milton winning the first 6-1 and Georgetown rebounding for a 1-0 win in the nightcap. Milton overcame a 3-2 deficit to defeat Brockville 7-4 in the opening round and then scored 4-3 and 3-1 wins over St. Thomas in the second round.

Georgetown's DRG Stationery represented the locals well in the tourney play defeating Cambridge Lions International 9-0 and 4-3 for a 13-3 total in the opening round and then outdoing Stratford 5-3. The two clubs played to a 1-1 tie in the series opener but Georgetown netted a 4-2 decision in the evening contest.

The DRG squad then fell upon hard times in their opening match with Milton dropping a 6-1 match. The 1-0 Georgetown win at night proved the locals could stay with Milton but it wasn't enough to help them advance.

A Child's Delight

LITTLE JEANETTE KEMP, 2, is shown in enraptured attention as she left the cluster of girls and boys at Saturday's puppet show in Milton Library to get a little closer to the action. The puppet show was presented by the Mountsberg Conservation Area staff. Narrating the show was Joann Lester of the conservation authority.

Penny Whistle Tunes

ST. PATRICK'S DAY went over big at St. Peter's School, where a musical troupe made up of staff members entertained an audience of students and parents on March 14. On the guitars are (from left), Doug Card, Michael Steel and Michael Robinet, while principal Kevin Finnegan plays his "penny whistle."

Rough series anticipated for Optimists

Milton Optimists minor peewee coach Bob Davidson anticipates a rough series when his squad tackles Fort Erie for the championship of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association.

Fort Erie eliminated London-Oak Ridge in four games. Milton quickly flew by Whitby in three games in the OMHA semifinals.

"I was talking to the coach of London-Oak Ridge," said Davidson, "and he told me Fort Erie plays rough, dirty hockey and they have a big defenceman who can skate."

Optimists haven't played Fort Erie this year although as major atoms last year, Milton won 5-4 in a Silver Stick tournament.

Optimists will have to rely on their skating game to avoid getting involved in a penalty-filled contest.

The first game goes Friday in Milton at Memorial Arena beginning at 7 p.m. The second game is set for Fort Erie at 2 p.m.

Sunday with the rest of the schedule to be decided on a coin toss before Friday's game.

Meanwhile, Optimists have been spending their time practising, something which has been made increasingly difficult by the presence of two national network TV cameras who seem bent on filming the kids because of the recent publicity concerning the famous Boyne stag. So far, both cameras crews were ejected from the arena before any filming took place.

team again and with about 10 minutes remaining, Georgetown was saddled with nine minutes in penalties.

A scramble in front of the net resulted in Milton's Mike McDonough scoring a power-play goal with two minutes to go in the game.

Frustration on several missed opportunities was typified when Pat Maskey missed an open net after an excellent deke with just 20 seconds remaining.

Georgetown held on to win the exciting hard-fought contest.

Outstanding efforts were given by Brent Myers, McDonough and German for Milton while Tom Webster played well in Milton's goal.

In the opener, a strong Milton squad had little difficulty disposing of Streetsville.

Mike Reiter and McDonough paced the scoring attack with a pair of goals apiece while singles went to Andy Brown, Dave Willats, Rouleau and Myers. Kevin Hughes made several big saves early in the game to keep his shutout.
