Manor staff cuts are suggested

A reduction in the number of full-time staff at Halton Centennial Manor is being suggested as a method of helping trim costs and make good the Halton Regional $600,000 deficit.
The study into staff at the Manor was in process by former Chief Administrative Officer Ernie Reid. His retirement held up the report for several weeks but it was brought to Regional Council last Wednesday by Personnel Director Dennis Camm.

Long-life milk shown to ladies

Nelson W.I. held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Hamilton in Burlington.
An excellent turn-out of members heard agriculture convener Mrs. E. Everett extol the benefits of the new sterilized milk which can be stored on the shelf until opened for use.
The few homemakers who had already tried it agreed that it is slightly less appealing than regular milk, but superior to evaporated or powdered milk for emergency supply.
The sample carton displayed by Mrs. Everett found its way to the kitchen where a cunning lunch committee served it for tea and coffee.
No complaints were heard.
Mrs. Everett described, as well, her recent visit to sewage disposal plant, citing many problems which are encountered in the plant's management.

Also contributing to the program was Mrs. H. Burkholder who read her thoughtfully composed letter to the legislature regarding the recent First Ministers' Conference on the proposed Constitutional Amendments.
A clever W.I. song to the tune of "My Favorite Things" sent to Mrs. A. Harris from her long-time pen pal in England, was well received and will be adopted for future sing-alongs.
Volunteers to represent Nelson W.I. at the leadership training course on "Stitchery" will be Mrs. D. Sedgley and Mrs. S. Jones.
Plans for the luncheon to celebrate Nelson Branch's 50th Anniversary were reviewed.
Former members as well as neighboring branch members have been invited, with Mrs. Clarence Diamond, F.W.O. President to be the special guest speaker.
Tickets for the luncheon are available now or at the door of Lowville United Church on Oct. 7 at 12:30 p.m.

New North Halt. home

Halton Hills residents facing the possibility of having to place a relative in an out-of-town nursing home may have their fears put to rest.
Ontario health Minister Dennis Timbrell came to Halton to announce the approval of a 50-bed nursing home for the Halton Hills area.
Timbrell said proposals will be called for and the home will be constructed by a private firm. The only involvement of the health department will be in subsidizing residents.
The need for a nursing home in the northern area of Halton region, he said, was stressed by the Halton District Health Council.
"We are acting on a recommendation of the health council, but they were not specific about where it should be located in Halton Hills," Mr. Timbrell said.
Bill Leonard, Executive Director of the Halton District Health Council, said the nursing home in North Halton would save residents of the area from having to use facilities in the south of the region or in Brampton or Guelph.
Currently, he added, there are five nursing homes in Halton, four in Burlington and one in Oakville.
"This doesn't solve our chronic care problem," Mr. Leonard said, "but it does give us some breathing space."
The next goal of the Health Council, he said, would be to convince the ministry of the need for chronic care facilities throughout the region and for a chronic home-care program "which the Ministry has said we will get in the fullness of time, which means sometime in the next 18 months."
