Craggs' 60th anniversary

It was "a very happy anniversary" that Lina and Jim Cragg of 422 Woodward Ave. celebrated on the weekend — it was their 60th wedding anniversary, a plateau not many couples achieve.

Making it especially happy was the fact that all but one of their 10 sons and daughters were home for the celebration, and they received plaques, telegrams, cards and flowers plus a host of best wishes from friends and relatives that helped make their special day even more special. One son Robert, who lives in Gosnells Australia, was the only one of the family unable to be home.

The Craggs, Milton residents for 35 years, began the weekend celebration with a dinner with their sons and daughters, their wives and husbands, at Bavarian Inn Saturday evening. Sunday an open house was held at Grace Anglican Church parish

Halton W.I.

Mrs. D. Lindsay presided at the fall board meeting of Halton District Women's Institute, held Oct. 6 in the Agricultural Office in Milton. All 13 branches were represented.

Nassagaweya Branch will host the District Day in Ligny Hall Nov. 4 in the form of a pot luck luncheon. Mrs. J. Lambert will be guest speaker, talking on the ACWW convention in Hamburg, Germany, and her European trip. Program convener is Mrs. R. Alexander.

A parliamentary procedure workshop will be held in the spring of 1981 if enough interest is expressed.

The history books are $3.50, it was announced. Mrs. B. Jefferson, retiring board member, expressed thanks to all for their support, also a gift presented at the District Annual.

Mrs. H. Wilson was asked to contact the Ontario Agricultural Museum, regarding storage of old minute books.

The 1981 District Annual is to be May 17 or 28 in Knox Church with Dublin Branch as hostess. Crewe work from this year's senior project will be on display. The competition is plain maple cream and uniced lemon loaf.

60 Years of marriage. Jim and Lina Cragg of Woodward Ave. spent a busy weekend celebrating their diamond wedding anniversary. They have lived in Milton for 35 years. The head table at Grace Church Hall displayed a cake with a replica of the little church in Saskatchewan where they were married in 1920, also a family photo, candles, flowers and a Bible she has owned since the age of nine.

presented her with a lily of the valley necklace. The Craggs met at a court christ party in Pun-nichy and were married there Oct. 29, 1920. She was the former Selina Back. They farmed there until 1943 and all of their children were born in Pun-nichy.

He joined the army in 1943 and when he was discharged, they moved to Ontario and lived in Toronto and Nobleton before coming to Milton in 1945. He worked at Martin's Mill and the Excelsior plant, then Pigment and Chemical Co. until his retirement in 1968.

The family includes 10 children, 25 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

The sons and daughters are David of Kellihier, Sask., Edward of Schomberg, Harold of Loretta, Clifford of Richmond Hill, Gladys (Mrs. Fred Bowler) of Palmer Sask., Joyce (Mrs. Chris Kowalsky) of Palmer, Gordon of Mount Nemo, Melvin of Milton, Robert of Australia and Winston of Milton.

Post office opens Nov. 10

The new Milton Post Office on Brown St. is tentatively scheduled to be opened for business on November 10.

Postmaster Cal Hart is notifying residents there will now be two forms of letter delivery.

While the new post office means all of Milton's downtown will be serviced by carrier, there still will be locked boxes available.

Mr. Hart said those wishing to obtain a postal box should contact the post office to reserve one in the new building.

R. Main,
Returning Officer,
Town of Milton.

MY COMMITMENT is to the PEOPLE of MILTON

The office of the Mayor is the single most important function at that level of Government where people can privately influence their own destinies, and as such, is deserving of all the interest and dedication a person can bring to it.

As an elected official for 15 years, I have tried to establish a tradition of being

- ACCOUNTABLE
- DEPENDABLE
- RESPONSIBLE
- APPROACHABLE

That's why I am once again offering my services and asking for the opportunity to serve you again as your Mayor.
