

Legion offence red-hot

It's beginning to appear Milton Legion major atoms must look outside the Tri-County League to find suitable opposition.

Legion made it 10 wins in a row by sweeping a pair of games over the weekend, including a contest against arch-rival Georgetown.

After Legion disposed of Oakville 11-1 Saturday, the squad took Georgetown to town by a 6-2 margin—helped somewhat by three unanswered goals in the third period against Oakville.

The win against Georgetown is a significant step as the squad aims its sights at the Ontario Minor Hockey Association playoffs.

Matt McCandless, Legion's prolific scoring left-winger fired six goals in the two games, including three goals in a 45-second span early in the third period against Oakville.

John Lorito opened the scoring for Georgetown, taking the opening face-off and skating through the defence, scoring just six seconds into the game. After the goal, Milton goalkeeper Stephen Wiwczaryk settled down and was outstanding in goal.

John Snow tied the score for Milton midway through the period with assists to Shawn Hassel-feldt and Doug Poulton. Chris Harrison scored to put Milton ahead for good two minutes later with assists to Bryan Haringa and McCandless.

The two teams exchanged single goals in the middle period with Jason Bahman scoring for Milton before McCandless fired two goals in the third period and Bahman added his second of the night to wrap up the scoring.

Aside from his two goals, defenceman Bahman put in a strong defensive showing, stopping several Georgetown forays into the Milton zone.

Against Oakville, Legion dominated the contest from the outset with two goals in the first period, four more in the second and finishing with five consecutive goals before Oakville finally broke the shutout bid of Jim Murray and Wiwczaryk with the game's final goal four and a half minutes from the end of the game. Wiwczaryk had kept the shutout bid alive by stopping a penalty shot late in the second period.

The line of Harrison, McCandless and Haringa ignited for six goals including four by McCandless and singles by his linemates. Doug Poulton and Danny Brown fired a pair each while Bahman added a single.

Milton resumes action Saturday against Flamboro at Memorial Arena at 5:15 p.m.

Just missed

The puck sails just wide of the net by a Milton juvenile player in Sunday's game against Ancaster. Milton fell behind in the third period and lost 4-2.

Late goals draw Banvil 3-3

Two unanswered goals in the third period allowed Georgetown to steal a 3-3 tie with Milton Banvil minor bantams Monday night at Memorial Arena.

Milton led 2-1 at the end of the first period and scored the lone second-period tally.

The squad also enjoy some success over the weekend taking a 2-0 shutout win over Oakville Saturday in Oakville.

Against Georgetown, Trevor Riebot opened the scoring in the first minute of play. Riebot broke in on a breakaway from the blue line beating the goalie with a wrist shot along the ice.

Georgetown bounced back at the midway point to even the score before Milton went back out in front with 42 seconds left in the period. On the goal, Tracy Harding picked up a pass from Riebot and fired a waist-high slapshot over the goalie's glove.

Tim Pollen advanced the score to 3-1 in the second period skating out of the corner with the puck before depositing it into the goal on a neat backhand.

Georgetown tied the score in the final period with two goals aided somewhat by a five-minute unintentional high-sticking major to Milton's Paul Wilson.

Banvil blanked Oakville despite playing shorthanded for 20 minutes and without the services of defenceman Mike Mangotich through injury.

Pollen opened the score with 7:29 remaining in the middle period finishing off a neat three-way passing play with Ron Lassaline and Paul Rowan. Both clubs had several good chances in the first period but were unable to score.

Glen Houston fired the insurance marker for Banvil as he was the triggerman on a good passing play with Chris Austin and John Ferko.

In games played the previous week, Chinguacousy edged Milton 3-2 despite being outshot 31-13 before Milton handled Ancaster 5-1.

Riebot and Harding scored against Chinguacousy while Austin, Rowan, Pollen, Mangotich and Riebot scored for Milton against Ancaster.

Junior girls fly to Oakville win

Kim Hamilton and Jennifer Domenico fired four goals each as Milton junior girls' hockey team rolled to an easy 9-1 victory over Oakville Royal Trust on the weekend.

The charged-up Milton squad took advantage of Oakville which iced just nine skaters and was in total command of the match.

Defensive standout Melanie Hollidge scored the other Milton goal while Corina Nicholson, Myrna Newman and Heather Wilhelm picked up assists.

Milton returns to action tonight (Wednesday) in Burlington.
