

Search for hidden gifts

Christmas means opening up a Christmas count-down calendar that my aunt sends every year; and finally finding out where we're going this year for Christmas especially when mom and dad go out for a Christmas party and having a baby-sitter. I tell her I'm going up to brush my teeth and search the house like mad. (Like under moms' bed for secret present hiding spots and never finding anything!)

Christmas means going through the agony of trying to get to sleep on Christmas Eve. The fun is waking up at 6 and peeking at my stocking, emptying it out on my bed and eating a little bit. When mom gets up we have a really good breakfast of bacon and eggs and a little bit of egg nog left over from the night before. Then we go into the family room and I see how big my first present is "Wow!"

It's giving mom a present that I bought myself and unfortunately had to wrap myself. Mom compliments me on how much better my wrapping is. Then we have hot chocolate and I play with my new toys.

IT SPELLS CHRIST'S NAME

Christmas is a time for giving and sharing with one-another. It is a time of happiness and laughter. I think that the people that are poor would really enjoy Christmas. I wish that they could have just as much fun as us.

Jesus Christ was born on Christmas and so, we celebrate it having fun. If you've ever wondered why Christmas is spelled with a capital C, it's because in the first part, C-h-r-i-s-t that spells Christ, Christ's name. I wouldn't want Christmas to change, not one little bit, and that's because I like Christmas just the way it is.

GIVE A TOY

It means a happy time with a Big celebration. And everyone laughing and full of joy.

If a little boy is at home with no presents at all, why don't you give him a toy.

And this gesture will make him dance with joy!

HOPES FOR GIFTS FOR THE POOR

Christmas is the time of Joy and freind ship. It's when you buy toys and rap them for Christmas. And you put them under the tree. The tree looks so prettly with decorations and bells. You put ligts and Merry Christmas signs. Some people do not have a Christmas because they do not have money to buy trees or presents to buy. they can hardle live on the food that they have to eat. Maybe they will be luckey and get some good cloth some day. I hope that some of the kids will get something. I hope I get the thing I want.
