And room to spare. A large living room is tastefully decorated and cheerfully welcomes you. Through the arch is the dining room with its large picture window on to the back yard.

Beautifully maintained, tastefully decorated ideal home

Proudly presenting. The Champion this week reintroduces its regular Home of the Week feature, launching the series with a distinctive home located on a quiet crescent in Timberlea subdivision. Brick and aluminum, two storeys and with a two car garage, this home would suit an executive or a family looking for a little more living space.

Home of the Week

Miltowne Realty Corporation proudly presents for sale a beautifully maintained and tastefully decorated brick and aluminum two-storey.

arrange a personal viewing. The number is 878-2365.

Located on a crescent in Timberlea, this would be the ideal home for the executive or the family requiring more living space.

A large foyer and bright living room cheerfully welcomes any visitor! An open staircase leads to four bedrooms. One has been converted to a study with built-in bookcases. The master bedroom has a walk-in closet and four piece bathroom.

Entertaining could be a pleasure here! Dinner could be prepared in the showcase kitchen and formally served in the dining room. Sliding doors lead from here to a patio in the backyard.

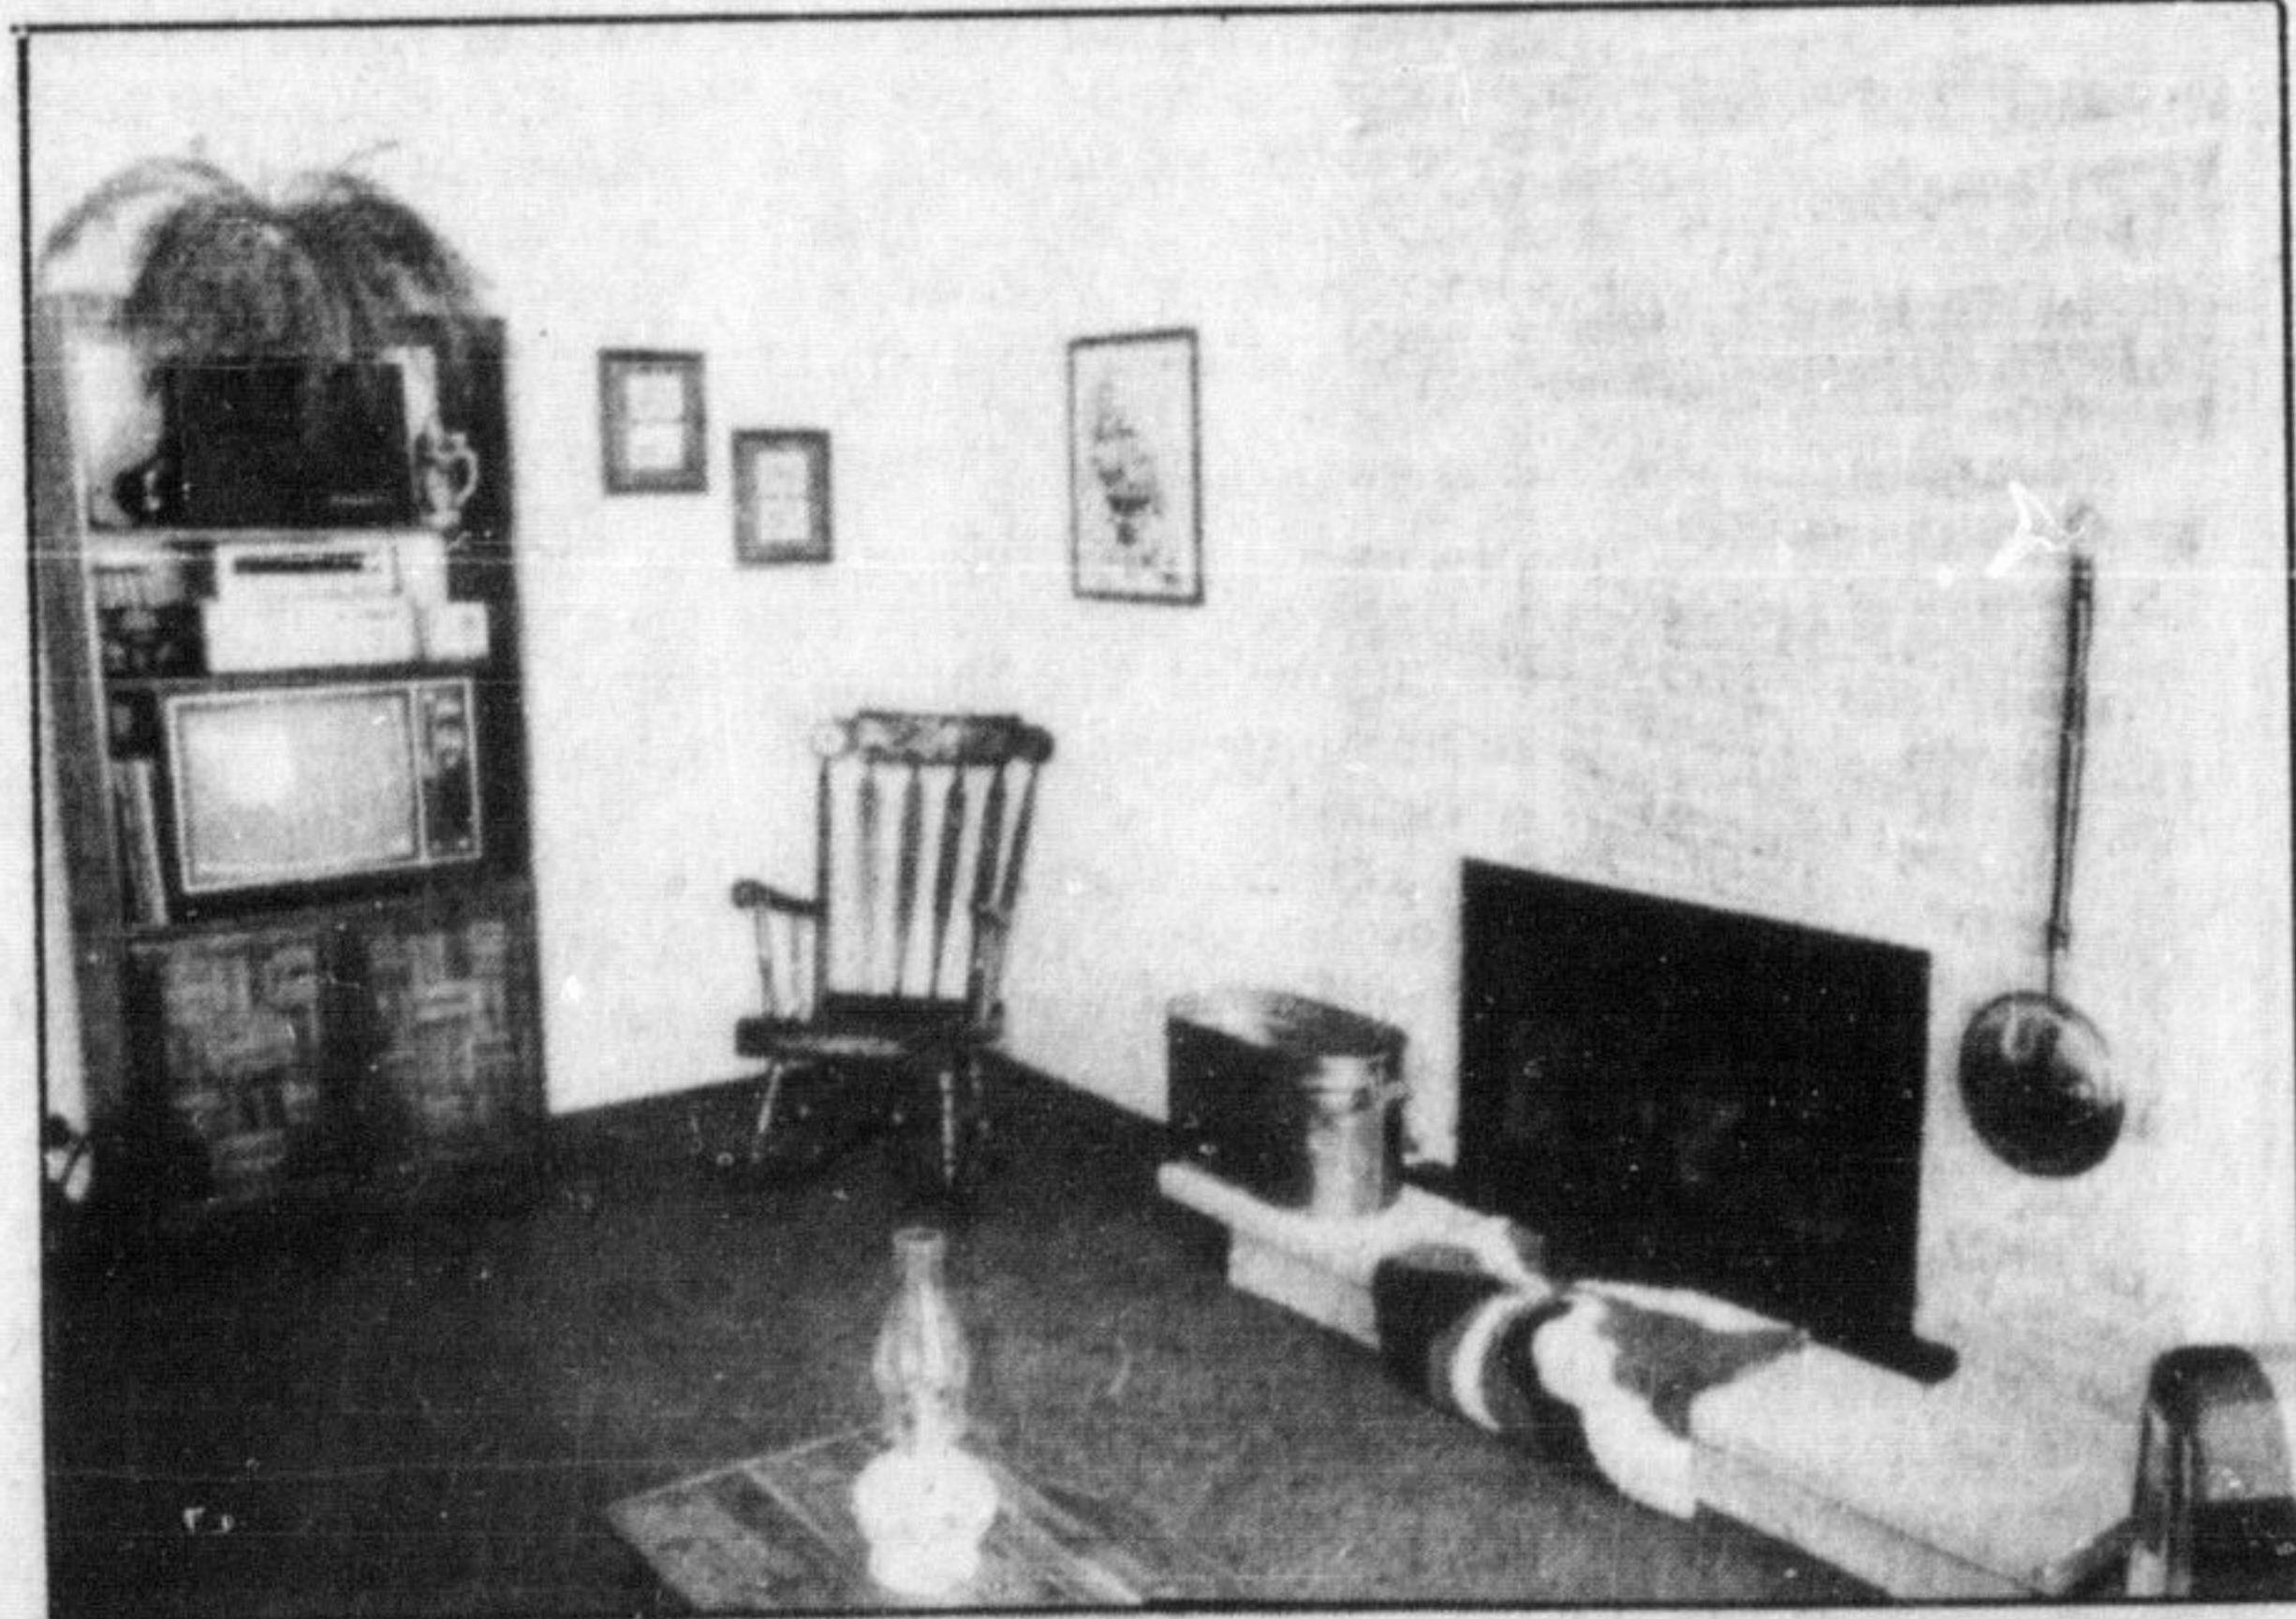

If you've ever considered having a pool, the large lot would certainly accommodate one.

As yet the basement is unfinished, however this would give you the opportunity to express your own taste and creativity in completing a recreation room and bar area.

Perhaps this sounds like a home you'd like to Picture perfect. The entrance foyer in our Home of the Week welcomes visitors and leads to the family room, kitchen, living room, or upstairs to view the four bedrooms. The open staircase is a definite plus in this home.

Family room. Designed for relaxing, this cozy room features a brick fireplace. There are sliding doors to the back yard patio.

Showcase kitchen. Life could be a breeze in this beautiful yet functional modern kitchen, featuring plenty of cupboards and shelves. There's room for a large table, too.
