

Baines—427 Main St.

Halton-Burlington Progressive Conservative candidate Fran Baines officially opened her Milton campaign office Saturday. From left at the opening are Dick Clement; Mrs. Baines and Milton Mayor Gord Krantz. Mrs. Baines' office was one of three opened on the weekend.

Reed—14 Martin St.

Jack Lawson (left) of Georgetown was one of the first Liberal supporters through the door of Julian Reed's Milton campaign headquarters. The official opening and ribbon cutting were held Saturday afternoon. Mr. Reed also opened campaign offices in Burlington and Georgetown Saturday.

No bus to show

When Premier Cinemas opens this Friday, Milton residents should be advised there probably will not be bus transport to the show at night for some time to come. At a recent meeting of the Milton Transit Committee, Councillor Colin Best asked if a bus would go to the cinema with particular regard to young people. Finance Director Don Loughead said this would involve putting a bus in service at night. Mr. Zsadanyi is to have meetings with representatives of the Ministry of Transportation and Communication on this matter.

Cutler—464 Steeles Ave.

NDP candidate Chris Cutler opened his Milton campaign headquarters Saturday afternoon. The opening where refreshments were served gave supporters an opportunity to discuss concerns, meet each other and the 21-year-old NDP candidate. Prior to the opening, Mr. Cutler spoke to United Auto Workers Union Members at the Union Hall regarding his party's plan for an industrial strategy and an increase in the minimum wage.

Tickets issued

Halton Regional Police will be authorized to start handing out $5 tickets for vehicles left on private property. A new Milton bylaw would allow a magistrate to levy a fine of up to $50 per each offence if tickets are not paid. The new bylaw would also authorize cars to be towed away at the expense of the vehicle's owners. If a vehicle owner finds a parking ticket on his car or motorcycle, he will have only 48 hours in which to pay the $5 fine.
