Land severed

Halton will continue to appeal a land severance given to the amusement-midway firm of Conklin and Garrett.
 The firm had received a Land Division Committee approval to separate its holdings between Appleby Line and Bell School Line into three lots.
 But the lots would be half the size as set out in the official plan, therefore Halton Region is appealing due to non-conformity.
 Milton Councillor Brad Clements has urged the Planning Committee not to appeal the land severance, as it would be better to slice up the area rather than let it sit whole for a major entertainment scheme proposed several years ago by the owner.
