Milton Players annual meeting tonight

The Milton Players, amateur theatre group, will be holding their monthly meeting tonight at the Halton Centennial Manor auditorium at 8 p.m.

Tickets for the April "Evening of Entertainment" production of three one act plays will be available to members for sale.

Following the meeting rehearsals for the production will be held and members are welcome to stay.

Also at the meeting plans for a fund raising dance for late April will be presented and a nominating committee for the new executive will be sought.

Non-members are welcome to attend the meeting to find out what your local community theatre is about.

Sheridan comedy is coming

Come to the cabaret and that's what 2600 persons did over the past few weeks, to enjoy the Sheridan College production of Grease.

The Performance Studies Department barely had a breather before going into rehearsals for the next and last production of the 1980/81 theatre season.

The Man Who Came to Dinner, a hilarious comedy written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, will be presented in cabaret style April 15, 16, 18, 22, 23, 24 and 25.

Tickets may be purchased through the box office from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday beginning March 31. The box office can be reached at 845-9430, ext. 259.

Ticket prices are $5 for Tuesday through Thursday evening performances, $3.50 for students and seniors, and $6 for Friday and Saturday nights, with no reduction for seniors or students.

Performances have already been 35 per cent sold out through season ticket sales.
