

Milton model may be best

Debbie Anderson of Milton has a chance to become the "1981 Model Of The Year" as she competes with 280 of Toronto's newest models.

Eleanor Fulcher Ltd. is presenting the contest in the form of a fashion show Sunday, April 26, in the Grand Ballroom at Sheraton Centre, Toronto.

Ellie Furman of Eleanor Fulcher Ltd. said Debbie Anderson has a very good chance in winning the contest which offers $20,000 in prizes and a two-year modelling contract for the top contestant.

A car, one week vacation in Barbados, a designer wardrobe, photo sessions, luggage and hairstyling, makeup and manicure services are among the prizes Miss Anderson will be competing for.

Contestants will model the latest spring and summer fashions in a show hosted by Eleanor Fulcher and choreographed by Andy Body. Judges will be fashion designers and clients representing all fields of modelling.

The contest will act as a launching point for the winner's modelling career in areas including television and film.

Gun charge

A 27-year-old Milton man, father of four, has been arrested and charged with possession of a dangerous weapon, after a man threatened to shoot patrons at The Bavarian Inn in Milton Mall Wednesday night.

According to Halton Regional Police, the man was told to leave and later thrown out of the restaurant after he became involved in a fight with several people at approximately midnight.

Police said he returned 10 minutes later with what appeared to be a sawed-off shotgun, threatening to kill everybody.

Customers reportedly dived under tables and the man left without firing a shot.

Police investigators said the man was carrying parts of a shotgun, but the weapon was not loaded.

William Johnson of 442 Valleyview Cres. was arrested at his Milton home several hours later and charged.

Dallas Cosgrove has taken great strides advancing her profession taking part in major fashion shows, photography bookings and television commercials.

During her time as 1980 model of the year Dallas Cosgrove has appeared as a guest on a number of radio and television talk shows.

In addition to the $20,000 grant prize, first and second runners up and 15 finalists will also receive a host of prizes.

Milton's representative along with her peers will attempt to impress the judges during two shows Sunday. A matinee will begin at 2 p.m. with an evening show starting at 8 p.m.
