Burlington ruins Wheelers rally with late third-period goals

Burlington ruined the return of Tim Pollen to Milton Fifth Wheel major bantams by scoring two late third-period goals to take a 4-2 victory Monday night at Memorial Arena.

Pollen, who has played all year with Milton Jr. Flyers, returned to the scene of his greatest triumphs, but was held off the scoresheet.

Atoms downed after comeback

A five-minute slashing penalty late in the game put the skids on a Milton comeback allowing Georgetown to skate away with a 7-3 victory over Miltowne Realty atoms Sunday at Memorial Georgetown looked like they were going to run away with the game with four unanswered goals in the first period and two more of the same kind in the middle frame.

with Milton's first shot on goal in the third period for an unassisted goal. Robbie Turner made things closer with a fine goal

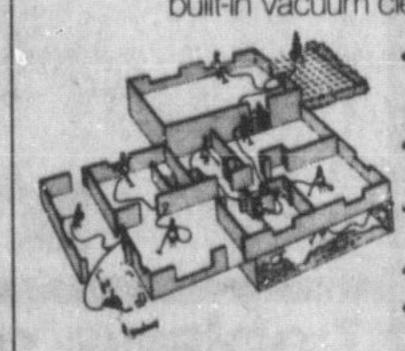

However, Stephen Schaffer broke the shutout bid on an unassisted end-to-end rush from his defensive position just three minutes into the period.

A minute later, Mike Murphy scored on a pass from Mike Bascom and Danny Hierman. Shortly thereafter, Milton was assessed a five-minute penalty which effectively ground to a halt their offensive splurge.

Georgetown closed out the scoring with single tally on the power play to ensure the win. Dylan Reynolds, Derek Johnston and Jay Mallany did some strong backchecking in helping to kill the
