Not long now to fishing season

The snow is slowly melting away and the creeks are overflowing so it looks like we might get spring at last. And spring to many outdoorsmen means the cry "Suckers are up!"

These finny fish come up Bronte Creek as far as Lowville where the dam stops them. They are delicious, believe me. I have eaten hundreds of them filleted and fried in Crisco, margarine or butter.

Next comes the succulent smelt—a fish with firm, white, sweet meat—truly a gourmet's delight. When the run is on there's no trouble getting your summer and winter supply. A good way to preserve smelt is to clean enough for a meal; put them into a plastic bag; and cover them with water. You have the fish frozen in ice with no way to dry out. The same application goes for suckers as well.

Most outdoorsmen who participate in trap-shooting will probably know George Breckon of the Appleby and Hamilton Gun Club has made himself known as a trap-shooter of no small note.

While on a trap-shooting trip to Las Vegas with his wife Frances, Bob Black of Bronte and his wife, along with a couple of friends from Sudbury, George's eye was really sharp. He shot 100 birds out of 100 on a handicap basis.

There have been hundreds of trap-shooters trying for this feat and have never made it. For this achievement, George received $6,500. George also won two beautiful belt buckles on a handicap basis. Congratulations George.

Bob Black couldn't seem to get the range and after a couple of days he retired to the gaming tables where his luck, I am told, wasn't much better. Cheer up Blackie, there is always next year.

We are sorry to report that George's wife Frances, who accompanies him on most of his trips has been in ill health for a few weeks. All your friends, Frances, wish you a speedy recovery.

Ice fishing is over for another year and I will have to wait for a report from our fishing director, I will pass along.

Here are a few announcements no one can afford to overlook.

—On Good Friday, there will be a steak and ham shoot at the Halton Sportsman's Association clubhouse on Steeles Ave. This shoot starts in the morning so get there early and win your Easter dinner before the sharpshooters get there.

Bring the whole family. There is plenty of room in our spacious clubhouse for all with refreshments for sale so you needn't go hungry.

—On April 17, there will be a charity breakfast with the profits going to charity. This is the third year in a row the club has had this breakfast and it is always well attended. So plan to be there. You will get your tummy full.

Friendship tourney

Memorial Arena will be filled with hockey action of a different sort as the Annual Friendship Hockey Tournament featuring service clubs and other organizations takes place.

The Rotary, Lions, Kinsmen and Optimist service clubs will be joined by the minor hockey executive, Firefighters, the Town and the Legion in the eight-game tournament.

Action gets underway at 5 p.m. and concludes with the championship game beginning at 10.15 p.m. Refreshments will be available.

The Sports Centre was filled Sunday afternoon with interested spectators as Milton Figure Skating Club held its biennial Pop Concert. Every facet of the club was featured in the club's finale to a successful season.
