CHIMNEYS
If you're living in an older home and have a gas furnace, you could be having serious problems with an unlined chimney.
The gas will deteriorate the inside of your chimney causing it to fall to the bottom blocking off your smoke pipe. Possibly causing headaches or asphyxiation. At no charge we will check out your home and give you a recommendation of what can be done to remedy this problem. We also give 10% discounts to any Senior Citizens for any repairs.
