

Obituary

Clarence McCready

Clarence Ellwood McCready passed away suddenly at his home in Arthur, Ont. on Sunday, July 11.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret Rodney.

Mr. McCready was born in Lowville, Nelson Township in the former Halton County.

He was the eldest son of the late Isaac McCready and Josephine Harrod.

He attended school at Ash, Boyne and Ligny in Halton County.

In 1943 he married Margaret Rodney of Ottawa. The couple farmed near Milton until 1967 and then moved to their present address in Arthur.

He is also survived by his one son, Charles and two grandchildren, Christopher and Stacey.

He is also survived by two brothers, Norman of Badjeros and Gordon of Arthur and one sister Marjorie, Mrs. John Allsop of Arthur.

Mr. McCready rested at the Goulding Funeral Home in Arthur until Tuesday, July 13 when a service was held. Rev. H.W. Zegeerius conducted the service.

Pallbearers included William Thomson of Fergus, Jack Watson of Campbellville, Bob Hutchison, Don Cudney and Andrew Murray, all from Arthur and Cor De Groot from Kenilworth.

Flower bearers included two nieces and four nephews. They were: Janice Walsh from Damascus, Donna McCready, Arthur, Bill McCready Badjeros, Neil Allsop, Ivan and David McCready from Arthur. Interment was at Evergreen Cemetery in Milton.
