

Local dancers to convention

The staff of Audren Merdith School of Dancing has just returned from Washington DC, after attending the 98th National Convention of Dance Masters of America, Inc.

The week-long conclave was held at the Shoreham Hotel and Master classes in the subjects of ballet, tap, jazz, modern, hula, acrobatic gymnastics, ballroom and business management were presented by world famous instructors.

The faculty included: Hal Bales, Phyllis Cyr, David DeMarie, Blair Farrington, Al Franz, Joe Giacobbe, Gus Giordano, Sherry Gold, Ed Isabelle, Terry Johnson, Stanley Kahn, Roxanne Spisak Kronberg, Roy Mavor, John Mederos, James Mitchell, Richard Munor, Ken Phifer, Peggy Pritchett and Terri Hayes Sellers, Lorraine Susa, Richard Thomas, Bob Willson, Imogene Woodruff.

During the week of convention, many special events took place, starting with a welcoming party "Cherry Blossom Time In Washington"; The president's reception and ball; the Mrs. Dance of America competition; The Dance Masters of America performing arts competition and The Miss Dance of America pageant.

The closing evening a gala dinner was given where the newly elected officers of Dance Masters were installed and many new members of this prestigious organization were honored.

Audren Meredith, staff, who operated a school of dance in Missauga and Milton are members in good standing of Dance Masters of America, an international organization of teachers of dance who are certified by examination to teach.

Catholic school on schedule

Renovations turning Georges Vanier School on Rebecca Street into St. Ignatius of Loyola, Oakville's first Roman Catholic high school, are almost complete and staff are expected to move into the new facilities later this month.

The construction, costing over $120,000, is being done by George Fowler Construction of Burlington.
