

Breaking new ground

Construction began last week in the building of the new facility for the Milton Tennis Club at Drury School. The facility should see its first action in about a month. Gathering for the ground-breaking ceremonies were (left to right) architect Tony Sudas, E.C. Drury business administrator B.A. Mitchell, Mayor Gord Krantz, MTC president Tony Shafer, Milton parks and recreation director Larry Arbic, and Bruce Hood, one who intends to use the facility to his full advantage.

Dan's Auto Body 5, John's Mobile Wash 0. The contest was close for the first half with neither club able to score. In the second half, John's Mobile Wash tired which allowed Dan's Auto to pump home six markers.

Atom table with columns W, L, T, P and rows for Milton Lions Club 2 and Bolton 0.

After thirty-five minutes of continuous end-to-end action, combined with excellent defensive work and good goalkeeping, the first half ended scoreless.

A fast start by the Lions in the second half, along with passing and great set-ups allowed them to score. Natalie Clark, and several attempts, finally got the ball in. Tiffany Scobie's goal followed shortly.

The Lions' determined and hard-working defensive wall by Michelle Homer, Lisa Eguchi, Jodi Marek and Vikki Learmont prevented Bolton's forward line from coming past midfield in the second half.

Excellent goal tending by Bolton's Stephanie Crisp prevented Bolton's forward line from coming past midfield in the second half. The final league game goes this week with playoffs beginning soon after.

Valvaara 3, Bolton 2. Valvaara made their last regular season trip to Bolton last week and seemed intent on making a gift of two points to Bolton except Bolton were better hosts.

At the 11-minute mark Mary Spagnolo scored on a free kick from first outside the penalty box. Bolton very quickly evened the score but neither side threatened again until half time.

Goal scorers for Optimist Club were Annette Lang with three, Annette Lang, Donna McLaughlan and Alex Grieve.

Jennifer Bascom and Daina Robertson celebrating her birthday were effective in moving the ball down the wing. Dana Harrison and Linda Murphy continued their steady play at halfback and Jennifer White was solid on defence.

Couriers deliver 9 packages to Acton

When it has just got to get there, Milton Purolator Courier minor mosquito rep team got the package through. The package—a soccer ball. The destination, Acton's net.

Other messengers for the Couriers, forward Robby Mifsud, was only able to leave his messages at the front door, Full backs Bill McIntyre, Daniel Belvedere and Mark Heathcote, expertly handled the parcels initial leg of the journey.

This record breaking run took place Thursday evening. The Couriers had only nine drivers, against Acton's 11 plus a spare, in this competition to see who could deliver the most parcels in 70 minutes.

After failing to take advantage of the wind in the first half, Milton Ontario Tree Fruits major mosquito soccer reps went on to a 4-0 defeat to Kitchener Thursday at Brian Best Park.

Despite playing into the wind for the opening 35 minutes, Kitchener scored twice including one with just two minutes left in the half.

Milton had a few scoring opportunities early in the second half but failed to convert the chances allowing Kitchener to settle down and add two more goals to their lead.

Milton's top player for the game was Jeff Truswell.
