The auction sale held at Bethel United Church on Saturday, Sept. 11 drew a large crowd of eager bidders for auctioneer Ward Brownridge. Eighteen beautiful quilts were sold and the top price was over four hundred dollars.

An antique doll carriage complete with doll was sold, there were many tables of home baking, flea market, rummage sale, country store, plants and lunch counter. Proceeds from this sale will help pay for paving the parking lot. The conveners Len and Marjorie Lister were happy with the results and thank all who helped and felt it had been a great day of fellowship, fun and co-operation.

The Halton Plowmen Association held their annual match at the Biggar farm, Lower Base Line on Saturday, Sept. 11 with 42 competitors in the several classes and had a good number of spectators and well wishers. The competition was completed shortly after 3 p.m. and was followed by the banquet at 7 p.m. in St. Stephen's church, Hornby.

The Halton Safety Council had a booth on the grounds, the lucky draw a first aid kit, was won by Tom Koen of K-Line Products, Campbellville and was drawn by Miss Elaine White, Furrow Queen. Purina had a stand and Mr. Don Miller of the St. John Ambulance was on the grounds.

At the banquet many received awards. Congratulations to Helen Rayner on receiving a five hundred dollar Scholarship from the Association to further her studies at Sheridan College in Homemaking. Five other Halton young people also received the same valuable scholarship to aid in their particular line of education. Miss Susan Livingstone is the 1983 Furrow Queen.

Bethel United Church anniversary will be held Sunday, Sept. 19 at 11 a.m. Guest speaker will be Rev. Geo. Leck of Brantford. Mr. Leck was minister at Bethel thirty years ago and is now retired.
