Royal Agricultural Fair
Attracting all age groups

When the country descends on the city at the 1982 Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, November 11 to 20, thousands of urban and rural folk will meet. For many it will be the once-a-year opportunity to touch, talk, laugh and learn about Canada's agriculture right in the heart of a booming metropolis. The excitement is mounting for this truly family event as another year's planning becomes a reality. The small Royal staff, along with more than 800 volunteers from across Canada have introduced some new ideas and features as well as maintained the very successful old ones.

Dennis Timbrell, Ontario's Minister of Agriculture and Food, will tour the fair on Friday Nov. 12 and officially open the 54th Royal that evening at the Royal Horse Show. He will also be the guest speaker at the World Field Crop Championships Presentations on Tuesday Nov. 16 and will present the coveted Queen's Guineas award to one lucky 4-H Club member of Friday Nov. 19.

After a five-year absence, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride will once again highlight the daily horse shows at the fair. This colourful extravaganza of precision-trained horses and riders has delighted people around the world for
