Drury enjoys field day in synchro swim meet

E.C. Drury School hosted an invitational synchronized swim meet Thursday Nov. 25. In all, four teams took part in this competition. The E.C.D. team dominated every event in which they were paced.

The event results were:
Figures Competition: Nancy Hart, first; Bonnie Burnett, first; Jara James, second; Joanne Robertson, second; Suzanne Schaede, third; Lucia Zita, first; Brenda Ronger, second, Laura Cooper, second.
Routine Competition: Solo—Nancy Hart, first; Duet—Joanne Robertson, and Bonnie Burnett, first; Team—Nancy Hart, Joanne Robertson and Bonnie Burnett, first.

The girls finished their successful season by attempting their star tests last Thursday.

Boy's B-ball teams hosted M.D.H.S. this past week.

In the junior game, Marcel Cezette was top scorer with 13 points. He was followed close behind by Simon Patterson with 12 points. Drury still fell short losing 67-40.

In the midget game, Fernando Cipriano led Drury with eight points followed by Tony Larson with seven. But again Drury was unable to capitalize on opportunities and lost 45-23.

Getting a tip

Young Ryan Corbett gets a YBA basketball tip from an instructor during the YMCA's opening session Saturday morning at Drury School. There are still some openings and anyone 7-12 years old interested is asked to call the 'Y' at 878-8711.

Mustangs end drought

The midget boys basketball team from Milton District High School ended a five-year championship drought as they brought home the consolation title from the Westwood Early Bird tournament over the weekend in Malton.

In the 16-team tourney, Mustangs dropped their opener to Morningstar Secondary School by three points. Morningstar went on to the championship final while Mustangs won their next three games, including a 35-27 win over J.A. Turner in the final, to claim the consolation side.

In the quarter-finals, Mustangs won a close battle with Streetsville by a score of 39-37. Going into the semi-finals against Central Peel, Milton needed a win to get to the consolation final. The team came through with a convincing 38-20 win.

Starting the championship match, it appeared as if the Mustangs would run their opponents right off the court as they jumped to a quick 10-2 lead after the first quarter. J.A. Turner fought back however to tie the game at 25-25.

However, some excellent scoring by Mark Durman, Tony Casarin and excellent rebounding of Franz Nowak coupled by the steady play of Bill Corradetti, Greg Houdecroft and Mark Brewer gave the Mustangs the confidence they needed as they finished the game strongly to take home the trophy.

Other members of this young team are Mike Auger, Mark Baynton, Dale Bell, Tim Casarin, Calvin Ho, Joe Kubinec, Rick Ruigrok, Jeff Westinger, Paul Louviere and Kevin Bates. The hard working manager is Rob Daniels.

The team's league opener is this Friday when they host St. Ignatius of Loyola at 3.30 p.m. An invitation to attend is extended to all residents of Milton and the surrounding area.

All boys cage teams have good pre-seasons

Boys basketball is on the courts again for yet another exciting season.

The seniors started off on the right foot with three victories to date in exhibition play. Perdue was the first victim of the Mustangs trample power as they lost 49-25. Bruce McDonald and Adrian Zulian each game up with 12 points.

Pearson was next in the line of the losers after Milton put 70 points on the scoreboard to Pearson's 55. McDonald shot for 18 points while Zulian and Charles (Chuck) Arsenault had 10 apiece.

Assumption High was also defeated by Milton 63-43. The opponent had an effective full court press but the Mustangs fought back and won.

The juniors are also undefeated in three games. They started regular season play by hosting Oakville Trafalgar Friday night. O.T. was defeated 55-46 in a good game of ball. Top scorers were Trevor Bileau with 18 points and Glen Faulknor with 12.

The midgets participated with 15 other teams in the Westwood tournament and came away with the consolation championship.

Student Council is holding its annual Christmas Dance.

This year, however, they've added a new twist. They're featuring, as the D.J., Scruff Connors from Q107. He's one of most popular D.J.s on the FM waves.

The dance is being held at MDHS Thursday, Dec. 16. It runs from 7-11 p.m. and tickets are $4 in advance, $5 at the door. Guests are welcome but must be signed in by an MDHS student.

The council does not expect to reap profits but rather use this as a spirit booster for students. A fog-light-sound show is featured.

The Christmas collection has once again started. Canned food-stuffs and money are being brought together to give to those who may need it to make their Christmas a little brighter. Donations are accepted.

Welders are Baugh-ed

The last time Milton Welding and Baugh Construction met in the White Oaks Hockey League, Welders skated to a lopsided 13-5 win.

On Sunday, Baugh got its revenge. Staffed with just two extra skaters, Baugh constructed a 7-1 lead after two periods and then hung on for a 9-5 for just their second win of the season in 11 starts. In other action, Peak's Industrial and Schroeder Construction played to a 3-3 deadlock.

Doug Campbell inflicted the most damage on Welders either scoring or assisting on each of the first six goals. He totalled two goals and four assists. He then added an empty-net marker to give him the hat-trick. Louis Girard picked up four goals and an assist while Bob Neeb added two more goals and two assists.

For Welders, Skip McTrach and Randy Howse led the offence with two goals apiece. The two goals were the 12th and 13th for Howse which give him the league-lead in goal production. Ken Kerr picked up his first goal of the year which helped make the score close.

Assists went to Rod Gooding with two and singles to Joe McCarthy, Kent Rennie, Larry Beard, Norm Mowbray, Thompson and Howse.

In the second game, Schroeders and Peak's played to a 3-3 tie which cut Welders' grip on first place to just two points. Brian Kelly, Larry Dean and Terry Budd fired singles for Schroeders with assists going to Marty Venner, Joel Bowden, Greg Rowan and Budd.

Bird team opens right

In their opening match of the 1982-83 season in the Hamilton and District Badminton League, the Milton second team visited the Lester B. Pearson Club of Burlington.

After a slow start, in which Doreen Davies and Michelle Roberts lost their ladies doubles games, the Milton team rallied to their winning form. Doreen combined with Fran Frampton to take the second match in an impressive manner and Fran followed this up by joining with Michelle to trounce the home team. The ladies won their section four games to two.

Similarly, the men had difficulty at first, when David Lines and Hector Campbell lost their opening games. Then Jim Lesaichuk joined David in a winning effort, followed by Hector and Jim winning in a tie breaker.

The mixed doubles games proved to be very exciting with some very keen competition. After some very close matches, including tie breakers, Milton emerged victorious five games to two.

The overall victory of 13-6 was a very encouraging start for the Milton Club.

Haringa nets 2 in Tender Touch win

Good checking and strong positional play paced Tender Touch Carpeting to a 2-1 win over Frankel Steel in a contest between a pair of Milton junior girls hockey teams Nov. 29.

Karen Haringa led the Tender Touch offence with both goals while Jenny Brooks and Sandra Cooley earned assists. Tammy Bonneville replied with the lone marker for Frankel.

The victory came on the heels of a shellacking Oakville imposed on Tender Touch the day previous. Good goalkeeping from Kelly Picard, with 32 stops, saved the shutout score from going much higher.

The two Milton teams meet again Friday night at 6.30 p.m. at Milton Sports Centre.
