Jaggart claims mat title

The E.C. Drury wrestling team participated in the Fenton Wrestling Tournament last Thursday. This tourney had more than 278 wrestlers competing.

Individual results include: Steve Heagle, 84 lbs, won two lost one and placed third; Steve Burrows, 90 lbs., won two, lost two and placed sixth; Grant Zikman, 97 lbs., won two, lost two for sixth place. John Zammit, 119 lbs., won four, lost one and placed second, Robin Robitaille, 141 lbs, won two lost three for fourth place. Tom Summer, 165 lbs., won three and lost one for second place.

Dan Jaggart, heavyweight won three for first place; Bernie Tammard, heavyweight, won two and lost two for fourth Kashmir Ark, 127 lbs., won one and lost two; Chris Haskell, 134 lbs. won one and lost three; Ray Finlay 141 lbs, won one and lost two; Wayne Cunningham, 177 lbs, won one and lost two; Geoff Vanderholt, 177 lbs., won one and lost two; Dennis Demetorious lost two; Victor Gibbs lost two; Dan Pegg, 134 lbs, won two and lost two.

The Junior and senior girls volleyball teams hosted Waterdown High School. The senior team played very well winning the first two games 15-10, 15-13 but they lost the third 17-13. Kim White and Colleen LeBlanc led the team with excellent serving.

The Junior team won their first game 15-10 but lost the second and third games by 15-13 counts. Today, the team participates in an exhibition tourney against Lord Elgin, Nelson, and Pearson High Schools. They also play O.T. Thursday.

The Drury water polo team won its first game of the season against Oakville Trafalgar. Top scorer was Paul Mazak in this 10-7 win. Defensive star was Joanne Robertson.

Thursday, Drury hosted M.M. Robinson for two games. In the first game, the two teams tied at five. In the second game, Robinson was able to win 8-1 over the tired Drury Team. The top scorer for Drury was Mark Bremner and an exceptional effort was put out by goalie David

In a hard-fought swimming meet, which was closer than the 204-148 for Acton score would indicate, Drury received exceptional efforts from: Brent Page, four firsts, Randy McLeod three firsts, Colleen Casey, two firsts, two seconds; Chris Ehrilich, one first, three seconds; Dave Hermanson, two firsts, two seconds; Sean O'Dell, one first, one second; Joanne Robertson, one first, two seconds.

Cagers have little luck

The boys basketball teams had a bad streak of luck last week. The one victory came in the midget game as they beat Loyola 52-40. Mustangs started very strong when Loyola began to rally. Greg Houldcroft was the top shooter with 19 points. The juniors lost a close battle to Georgetown 49-44. Mike Belvedere was the top scorer for Milton with 16 points. When the senior squad met up with the Rebels, they put up a strong defensive wall but the offence needed to work. Rebounding was good but MDHS lost 69-58.

Legion hoping new year will bring end to losses

December continues to be a bad omen for Milton Legion major atoms as they dropped both contests this week. The road trip to Flamboro ended in a 5-0 drubbing while Burlington doubled the score 4-2 at Memorial Arena Saturday afternoon.

Flamboro took a 1-0 first-period lead on a goal by Dion Delmonte before the disasterous middle period when consecutive markers from Mike Cooke, Jeff Daw and Rory McCaw upped the margin to 4-0. Kelly Entwhistle added the fifth Flamboro goal with only 15 seconds remaining in the third period.

Without the outstanding job in goal for Legionaires by Ryan Tummon, the results could have been much worse as the locals were outshot by a huge 27-6 count.

Burlington took a 1-0 first-period lead on a marker by Simon Carter before Ritchie Davies upped the margin to 2-0 mid-way in the second frame. Two and a half minutes into the final stanza, Michael Banning triggered a Paul Carles-Danny Beamish relay to cut Burlington's lead in half.

Richard Stanbury scored two minutes later to again put the visitors up by a pair.

Three minutes had elapsed when Todd Linton counted the fourth Burlington score.

The Beamish-Banning-Carles trio got together with 4.34 remaining in the contest to once again cut the lead in half as Beamish was the sniper. With goaltender Richard Saliba on the bench in favor of an extra attacker, the Legionaires pressed hard but Burlington denied the Legionaires any chances and only a last-second stop by defenceman Robbie Del Papa prevented another Wrist Shots: After playing two-thirds of the regular schedule, Legionaires have a .500 average 3.54. as they have won nine, lost nine and tied twice for 20 points in 20 games.

Lack of intensity and a large dose of inconsistency have plagued Legionaires in their recent outings. They seem to play well for a few minutes then slip back into their unsettled ways. Could be due in part to the recent line shuffling the coaching staff has done.

Upcoming contests have the Legionaires travelling to Chinguacousy Thursday night, a home game against Orangeville on Saturday afternoon before their final league game before Christmas as they return to Streetsville on Sunday

Blades on rampage with 21 goals in 3 games

Continuing with their impressive performances, Milton Banvil Blades minor bantams rolled to a pair of convincing wins in three starts in action last week.

The club began by annihilating Dundas 13-3 with newcomer Blair Leonard guarding the nets. On Sunday, Blades blasted Orangeville 7-1 in Orangeville. However, the two clubs met up Monday at Memorial Arena with Orangeville prevailing by a 3-1 score.

Against Dundas Saturday, Blades could do no wrong. They outskated, out-shot and out-played the Blues from Dundas in piling up the goals in a rare display of an awesome offence.

Scott Hilson led the charge with three goals and three assists while Wayne Rivers chipped in with three goals and an assist. Travis Cole hit for two goals and three assists, Rob Wilson scored once and added three assists while Geoff Pollen, Grant Thomson, Jason Pascoe and Marc Banning each added a goal. Scott Ellwood led the assist-makers with four while Doug Drennan added three and Justin Varga chipped in with one.

In a hard-hitting affair Sunday in Orangeville, Blades went into the contest determined to play hockey and the club met with productive dividends

Milton's forechecking helped lead to many good scoring chances and with Don Durand turning in probably his best performance between the pipes for Milton, Blades were in command all the way.

Pollen and Varga paced the offence with two goals apiece while Rob Wilson chipped in with a goal and three assists. Hilson and Drennan added singles while Ellwood had two assists.

Orangeville came to Memorial Arena Monday for some revenge and picked on Blades who were lifeless through much of the contest. Good goaltending from Orangeville's Paul McDonald stopped several Milton scoring chances. Hilson fired Milton's lone goal with Pat Butler
