OVER OR UNDER-SPENDING

Some people spend more than they can afford when buying a house. Equally painful is the mistake of buying the cheapest possible house and then suffering through its shortcomings. I have no intention of stating how much anyone can afford for a house. This is a very personal decision. There are guidelines of monthly averages that lending institutions use for housing expenses. But—like the "height/weight" charts printed on scales—these are only averages. Don't hold back if you feel you can exceed the guidelines. When you are willing and sufficiently disciplined to economize on other expenses, you can get a better house than the guideline calls for. A good house may seem costly, but the rewards are well worth it. Investing in a house that's a little more expensive gives you an excellent inflation hedge while your whole family enjoys a better place to live. The resale opportunity is brighter also.

Questions on Real Estate may be sent to Real Estate Corner, c/o The Canadian Champion. When necessary, Jackie Verdurmen will check with the experts to answer your inquiries.
