St. Paul's takes Inter-church title

Susan Newell singled home Ron Churchill in the bottom of the ninth inning to give St. Paul's United the margin of victory in a 14-13 win over Emmanuel Baptist for the championship of the mixed division of the Inter-Church Softball League.

The league held its year-end tournament Saturday at Brian Best Park and it featured several surprises.

For starters, a six-game preliminary round left Boston Presbyterian, Emmanuel Baptist and St. Paul's in the semi-finals along with Knox Presbyterian which earned a bye with its first-place finish.

However, St. Paul's bumped off Knox 8-7. Emmanuel dumped the second-place team Boston 5-2 to set up the championship game between the third and fourth-placed teams.

In the final, St. Paul's jumped in front 9-1 after five innings. Emmanuel got back into the thick of things with seven runs in the sixth and led 13-9 heading into the bottom of the eighth.
