

Jake gets a shutout for minor peewees

On the strength of a complete-game shutout by ace hurler Jacob Perrott and sound team defence, the Milton Red Sox minor peewee rep team blanked Cawthra 1-0 for their first regular season victory.

In addition to eight innings of scoreless ball, Perrott brought home the winning run in the bottom of the seventh. Cashing him in was slugger Wayne Benson, who swung the hot stick on the night with a 3-for-3 performance.

Highlighting Milton's superb fielding were two well executed throws by catcher Josh Wagemann, as middle infielders Benson and Liam Tennant (call-up) tagged out runners at second base.

Nicole Gooding was another defensive standout with an aggressive charge from deep left field to prevent a certain extra-base hit.

Sitting out for the Red Sox was Chris Coates, who was still awaiting an MRI. Making up the rest of this season's roster are Todd Bouwman, Daniel Corder, Drew Evans, Kenny Hume, Eric Lizon and Scott MacKay.

Tammy gets tough in karate meet

Members of Scott Hogarth's Fighting Griffins Martial Arts Club recently traveled to Binghamton, New York for the annual Master Fredrick J. Hamilton Memorial Karate Tournament.

Leading the way was Scott's wife Tammy Hogarth, who secured second-place honors in the ladies novice class. Kristen McElhone was right behind her for third.

In the men's traditional Okinawan/Japanese black belt division, Derek MacDonald finished fifth. Greg Reinelt meanwhile, shone in an oversized junior blackbelt grouping and came eighth.

The cross-border tournament featured more than 700 competitors from Canada and the United States.

Mavs stage a comeback

• from MAVERICKS on page 33 while Hartholt set up seven goals and scored two himself.

Leworthy, Darling and Brent Moyer each contributed four-point efforts while Leigh, Wade and Brad Moyer posted single tallies. Eansor drew three assists and came up with several big saves early on to throw Orillia off their game. Scott Balkwill was his biggest nemesis on the night. The Kings' captain hit the 80-point plateau with six goals and a pair of helpers.

Milton's recent efforts kept them stationed in fourth place in the West Division. With just eight games remaining in the regular season — including four against sub .500 teams — they seem destined to graduate to the Tier I playoffs this summer.

Maverick notes: Hartholt remained among the league's top 10 scorers this past weekend. He now has 35 goals and 41 assists, and will no doubt break last year's point-total of 96. Leworthy, Hedley and Darling are likely to surpass their 1996 efforts as well.

Stars coming to Greystone Golf Club

Milton's Greystone Golf Club is the place to be July 6 and 7 as a premiere field of PGA Tour pros including Fred Couples, John Daly, Craig Stadler, Jeff Sluman and Scott Hoch tee it up for the Altamira Charity Challenge.

These elite golfers — plus celebrities from the world of sports and entertainment — will hopefully help raise more than $500,000 for a variety of children's charities. This two-day Celebrity-Pro-Am hopes to raise more money than any other charity golf event in Canadian history.

Headlining the Sunday, July 6 card is Philadelphia Flyers hockey star

Eric Lindros. He will be joined by Canadian singer Tom Cochrane and ex-Blue Jay pitcher John Cerutti — plus a host of other athletes and entertainers.

The following day, golf fans will have the opportunity to watch more than 20 PGA Tour stars and top amateurs showcase their skills.

The Altamira Charity Challenge will cost $10 on Sunday and $15 on Monday for adults, who can purchase a two-day pass for $20. Children 12 and under get in for just $5 for the weekend. Tickets are available through Ticketmaster at (416) 872-5000 or at the Greystone gate the weekend of the event.
