Good job, cadet

Brigadier General (ret.) Jeff Brace presented the award for air cadet of the year to Corporal Matthew Sloski during recent ceremonies celebrating the 25th anniversary of the local 820 Blue Thunder Squadron.

Young backs hard-hitting bill for kids

Terence Young hopes to convince the province to introduce the toughest tobacco and drug legislation in North America.

The Halton Centre MPP is calling for a zero tolerance policy, to make it illegal for kids to be on school property with cigarettes, punishable by a suspension.

He'd also force parents to meet both the school principal and a social worker or guidance counselor, if a teacher so much as suspects a student is involved with drugs.

"The major problem in our society is denial," said Mr. Young, who is confident his private member's bill will be approved. "Substance abuse amongst our youth is at its highest level since 1980 and, sadly, this insidious problem is thriving on our ignorance and apathy."

Bill 134, An Act to Promote Zero Tolerance for Substance Abuse by Children, passed first reading on May 27, and second reading is set for June 12 at Queen's Park.

For it to become law, Mr. Young's bill would require third and final reading, which would likely depend on it being referred to the Social Justice Committee for debate and public input, this fall.

"If I'm lucky it will go the committee level," said Mr. Young, who represents portions of south rural Milton. "It'll be a challenge to get it on the agenda because they're so busy."

Citing the newly-released Addiction Research Foundation Ontario Student Drug Use Survey 1977-95, Mr. Young said the statistics are alarming.

It showed 41 per cent of grade 11 students smoked cannabis in 1995, while LSD had been tried by almost one in five. Some 76 per cent had consumed alcohol.

The bill would require parents to inter-
