Upon being promoted to constable in 1977, he was posted to uniform patrol in Burlington.

In 1988 he became a court officer, serving in all the Halton courts.

Sgt. Gheller was promoted to his present rank in 1989 and served as a uniform supervisor in Milton for four years.

In Milton, he pioneered one of the first community consultation committees.

He now works as the court bureau sergeant.

Constable Gregory Braun

In July, 1976 Constable Braun joined Halton police as a constable after more than two years experience as an auxiliary officer with Waterloo Regional Police.

He began his policing career in Milton, where he performed duties as a court officer and acting sergeant.
