Hot car burns up

A car stolen from Etobicoke turned up on fire at a Sunoco gas bar on Guelph Line overnight last Friday.

The 1996 Chevrolet Cavalier is believed to have overheated after being left running in the lot, said Det. Sgt. Ron Welsh of Halton Regional Police.

Impaired charges

An officer on patrol noticed the truck with a man sitting behind the wheel and a key in the ignition at 11:30 p.m. Sunday.

A 35-year-old man faces charges of having care and control of a vehicle while impaired and having over the legal limit of alcohol in his system.

A 1994 Dodge Caravan vanished from the Guelph Line-Hwy. 401 park-and-go overnight Sunday.

The vehicle, owned by a Guelph Line resident, is worth $12,000.

Golf for industry education council

Amateur and professional golfers will join forces on the green July 30 at the Carlisle Golf and Country Club for the fourth annual Golf Tournament with a Mission.

The tournament — designed to raise funds for the Halton Industry Education Council (HIEC) — costs $95 per person for 18 holes of golf, a reception with cash bar, dinner and awards ceremony with prizes for everyone.

The HIEC is still looking for teams of four who wish to take their clubs out for a day, contributors who wish to sponsor a golf hole or tee and anyone who would like to donate a prize.

For registration forms or further information, contact HIEC at (905) 634-2575.
