How about a seat?

Dear Editor:

Milton has a very clean Main Street, but because it is built on a hill we are in desperate need of more benches.

Why do you think people go to the mall? The benches draw them.

Cancer fundraiser organizers devoted

Dear Editor:

The second annual Ladies Drive for Cancer was held on Thursday, July 10 at Granite Ridge Golf Course.

This event was organized by six ladies very devoted to the cause.

On behalf of the other 103 golfers attending this wonderful tournament and all of us who enjoyed a great meal and were presented great prizes, I would like to thank Cheryl Davidson, Pat Scannell, Dottie Brophy, Judy Perry, Sharon McKeown and Carol Sharpe.

It was a very hot day and a long one for some and these organizers were eagerly talking about next year's event.

Thanks again ladies for a great day. I am sure your efforts raised a lot of money toward breast cancer research.

Let's give proportional representation a try.

Dear Editor:

I was pleased to see the article by Paul Pagnuelo in a recent Champion. It is nice to see someone looking forward.

Ever since democracies have had party politics everyone has been confusing strong parties with strong government. We have recently had strong parties governing led by Mr. Mulroney and Mr. Cretien. Both governments were four years of dictatorships. Laws being passed with no regard for public opinion.

With proportional representation the leading party has no overall majority and therefore does not govern. It is parliament that governs. The leading party proposes a law. There is full discussion with the other parties. It can be passed with or without amendments or it can be killed.

What could be better for our great country, Canada?
