Mike Kendrick award winner and valedictorian at Milton High School's 55th commencement Friday

It's commencement time again at Milton District High School. The word itself denotes a new beginning and for 79 grade 13 graduates, this year has meant just that.

A total of 54 of the 79 are continuing their studies at colleges and universities in Toronto, London, Waterloo, Kingston and Peterborough. The remainder are already in the working world.

This year at MDHS there are 28 Ontario Scholars, students with marks of 80 per cent and over in six credits. Many of these young people will be receiving awards and scholarships Friday night along with their OSA certificate and $100.

Valedictorian for 1975 is 19-year-old Mike Kendrick, an Ontario Scholar and winner of the Ted Hood memorial award for good academic and athletic standing, and the Student Council award for participation.

Chosen by teachers and classmates alike, Mike is in a general science program at the University of Toronto. He's the son of Betty and George Kendrick of Milton and has attended J. M. Denyes and Martin St. schools.

Highest standing
Bill Fay holds the highest standing in 1975 with a 92.2 per cent average. Bill is also 19 and will be receiving the Halton Board of Education proficiency prize, the Pickett Shield for highest standing in grade 13, and his Ontario scholarship.

Both Rigos seem to be gifted in mathematics with Mike's marks seldom slipping below 97.

Wollaston boys
The Wollaston family is another where the awards are Scholastic success runs in the Fay family. His brother Don, now a teacher at Belle River District High School, was valedictorian when he graduated some years ago from MDHS and was awarded the Terry Deslaurier Award for personality, a special honor that has been given only once in the past seven years.

Bill's sister Maryanne received a leadership award at MDHS and is now a registered nurse in Toronto.

Second highest grade 13 standing was earned by Jane McCarthy with 90.8 per cent. Secondary School Graduation Diplomas will be given to 201 students who have completed their grade 12 courses of study. Honor diplomas go to 79 students.

Top grade 12
Top grade 12 student is Mike Rigo with 88.8 per cent. An honors student throughout his life, he graduated from Holy Rosary School with a 92.5 average.

Mike is the winner of three awards given for highest standing, the Halton Board of Education proficiency prize for grade 12, the George Dawson shield and the student council honor roll plaque. He is at MDHS this year completing his grade 13 and plans to go to University of Waterloo to study engineering and computer science.

The son of Alfred and Hilda Rigo, Mike has an older sister Roseanne who was top graduate in 1971 with a 93.5 per cent average. She is studying mathematics at the University of Waterloo.

Both Rigos seem to be gifted in mathematics with Mike's marks seldom slipping below 97.

won. Stephen, 18, is an Ontario Scholar who took his grade 13 in four years and is now studying at the University of Western Ontario. He receives the UWO King's Scholarship.

His brother Andrew, 17, is winning two awards, the Halton Board of Education proficiency prize for grade 11 and the John Milton Chapter IODE trophy and award for academic acknowledgement.

Andrew took his grade 11 and 12 together last year, graduating with a 91 per cent average. He's now in grade 13 and plans to go on to University. They are the sons of Anne and Roy Wollaston. Brothers Nicholas and Jonathan are at MDHS and Martin St.

Grades together
Also taking grades 12 and 13 together were Janet Schreiber, Robert Ashdown, Uta Kayser and Jane McCarthy. All are Ontario Scholars.

Janet received an 86.3 per cent average and is studying Kinesiology at the University of Waterloo. She is interested in working with handicapped children. Janet is the daughter of Bill and Audrey Schreiber.

Nancy Newell

Robert receives the Student Council award, the Anne MacArthur scholarship for highest standing in grade 13 history. He is in pre-med at Erindale College.

Uta is studying English at York University and Jane is at Queens in an arts and science program. Jane receives three awards Friday evening, the Queen's University Tricolor scholarship, the P. L. Robertson scholarship and the Canada Trust scholarship. The awards are for highest standing in grade 13.

Unusual courses
Trudy Sales and Jennifer Duignan are pursuing unusual courses of study for women. Both Ontario Scholars, Trudy is in nuclear research at the Institute of Medical Technology and Jennifer at Seneca College training to be an aviation technician.

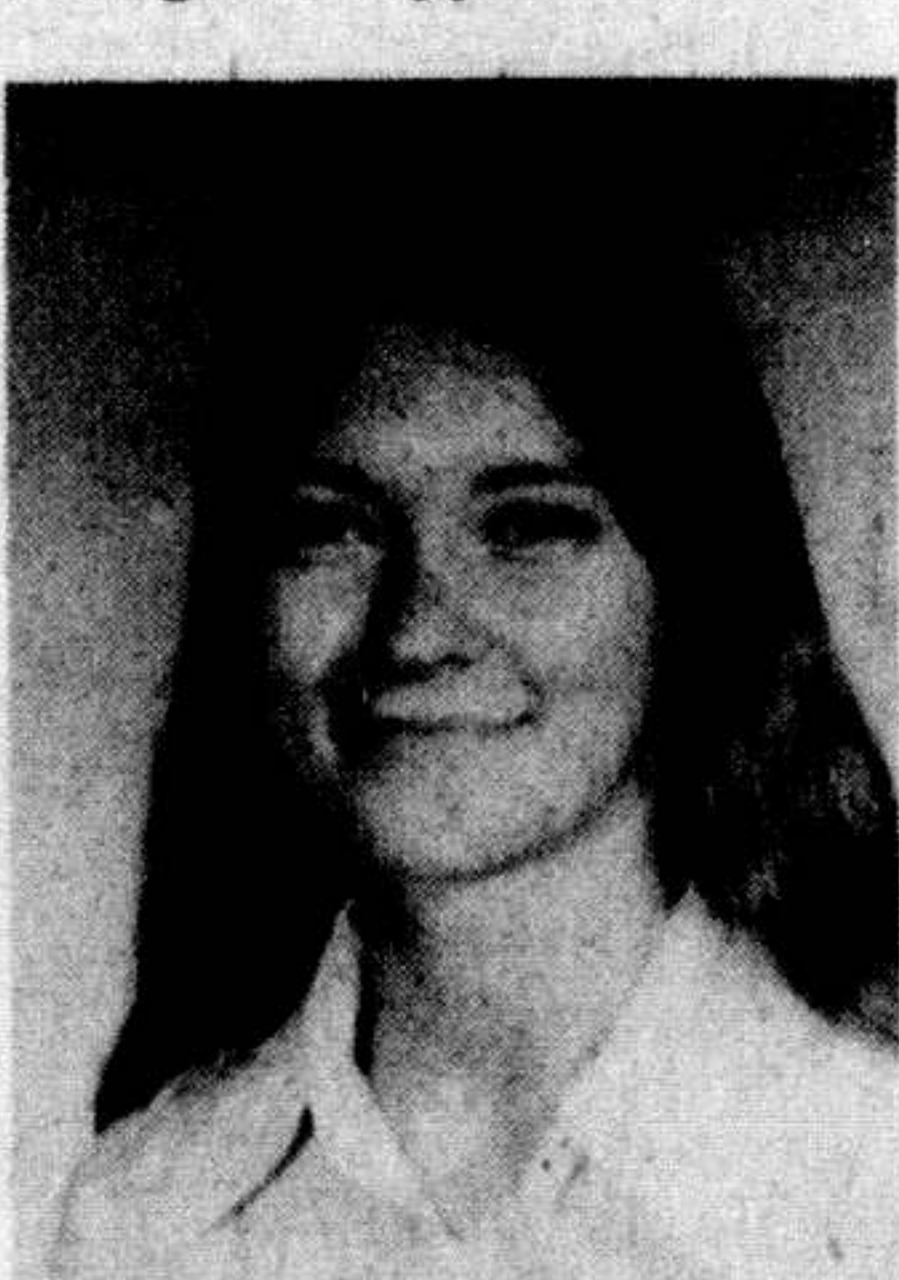

Jennifer receives the Student Council award, the Patti Dearing scholarship for highest standing in grade 13 English, sharing it with Susan Thomson. Susan also receives the Trent University entrance scholarship where she is studying arts.

Grades 9 and 10
Judy Willoughby and William Walker are each receiving two awards. The Halton Board of Education proficiency award for highest for grade 9 and the Campbellville Women's Institute prize for highest standing in grade 9 English go to Judy. William receives the proficiency prize for grade 10 and the Wilfred Crozier shield for highest standing in grade 10.

Irene Tarnawsky will receive two plaques and the John Milton Chapter IODE scholarship. The plaques are the Peter Lerner memorial award for grade 12 geography and the Terry Deslaurier citizenship award.

Student Council
Bonnie Hill and Cathy Jefferson will receive Student Council awards. Bonnie also receives the Milton Department Store award for a student proceeding to a College of Applied Art and

Mary Stinson
