

CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS were plentiful at local schools and here a group at J. M. Denyes School presents a pantomime and choral number prior to the Christmas holidays. With the choral group providing the story setting, the lonely tree was claimed for a Christmas tree, decorated and became the centre of attention in the grade 3 program.

POINSETTIAS were given anonymously to the Milton Central Library this Christmas. They were from "an admirer" and "the fellow who keeps his books out the longest." With the lovely plants are children from the Polyanna Day Care Centre, Ruthanne Mortimer, David Noce, Shelly Bray, Julie Parnell, Michael McDonald, Jason Arpa, Karen Verstraete, Jerry Bergin, Melanie Williams, Lisa Fischer, Sandra Hosgood, Jenny Pickett and Jay Ryan.

—Milton firefighters had a good crowd at the Christmas

—The Champion office will be closed Dec. 25 to 28 for the holiday.

Thank you

I would like to thank all the boys and girls whom I have taken to kindergarten and on to high school for their kind deeds and lovely gifts on my retirement.

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

FRED AUCKLAND

TWO-YEAR-OLD Blair Gordon was one of about 50 people who visited Santa at the Campbellville Lions Club Hall Sunday. Youngsters took moms and dads along while they picked up special treats arranged by the Lions Club and candy canes from Santa.

MRS. SANTA CLAUS and helper Tinkerbelle burst in unannounced at last week's Milton and District Kinsmen Club meeting, with a joke gift for all the Kinsmen. Gene McLeod had to sit on Mrs. Claus' knee and tell a joke to get his present. Mrs. Santa turned out to be Kinette Becky Tonner, while Kinette Alma Gildea was Tinkerbelle and helped distribute the presents.

—Streets are slippery, drive carefully over the holidays.

—After today (Tuesday) there is just ONE shopping day left.
