

Lots of info in one place

Milton residents can learn about the many clubs, groups and services available in their community at a special open house Saturday, Sept. 6.

Sponsored by Milton Community and Information Services (MCIS), the seventh annual event will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Milton Mall.

Entitled "Milton: Up Close and Interactive", the open house features displays of sports and leisure clubs, children's groups, seniors' services and community agencies that serve the Milton area.

"Our main objective is to let people know about the kinds of services offered in the community. Everyone on the MCIS database has been invited and we're expecting about 50 display tables," said Wendy Ryan, MCIS' executive director.

Several local groups will be performing throughout the day including the Milton Springers and Milton Children & Youth Centre, whose members will demonstrate the benefits of Tai Chi.

Volunteers from the Farm Museum will also entertain the crowd with a fiddle and jig/reel performance.

The Senior's Activity Centre, Cherish Family Resource Centre, the Ontario Jockey Club, Kidz Korner, North Halton Cultural Awareness Council, the Canadian Red Cross Society, Milton Children's Chorus, Girl Guides of Canada and the Halton Regional Museum will be participating.

Sign up deadline

If you want to sign up for a course, the time is now.

Education is Ageless, the fall 1997 program guide from the Halton Board of Education, provides information on computer training, career planning and training, workplace training, high school credit courses, personal interest courses and English as a Second Language.

The guide can be picked up from any Halton Board of Education school, library or local employment office.

For more information, to register or to get a copy of the guide, visit the new Halton Education Center — Elgin Campus at 5151 New Street, Burlington or call 333-3499 or 878-1240.
