Handguns stolen

A burglary at a rural Georgetown home has detectives searching for guns and jewelry. Crime Stoppers hopes you can help.

Between 9:30 a.m. and 2:55 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 15, a side door was forced at a home on No. 10 Sideroad. Once inside, the thief went through several rooms in a search for goods. Antique jewelry and watches as well as some cash were taken.

Of particular concern to the police is that a safe containing a number of handguns and a box holding compatible ammunition were also stolen.

It is believed a vehicle would have been needed to carry the stolen property — estimated to be worth at least $4,300.

If you can suggest a possible suspect, or if you noticed something that might help solve the case, Crime Stoppers wants to hear from you.

Any information received will be turned over to investigators in strict confidence.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other case, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000. You need not give your name and your information can be taken with complete anonymity.

Crime Stoppers does not subscribe to call display. Call 1-800-222-TIPS or 825-TIPS.

tion who would like to come in and use the site for events, without being tied down to a six or 12-month lease," said Mr. Monte.

The board is targeting potential users such as equipment manufacturers and suppliers who may want to showcase new products, as well as agri-business entrepreneurs who require big facilities for special events.

Halton North MPP Ted Chudleigh said that while the Ontario government has handed over control of the Farm Museum, they did provide the private consortium with a $325,000 subsidy this year and would continue to offer funding — in $300,000 and $275,000 annual increments — over the next two years should the Farm Museum remain open.

In the meantime, Mr. King said efforts will be made to safeguard the wide assortment of antiques and artifacts on the 80-acre facility.
