Vicki is back for her 11th year

The Milton Springers provincial gymnastics team kicks off its 1997/98 season in Burlington this weekend with the first of three Central Region Provincial qualifying meets.

Leading the crew is 20-year-old Vicki Chliszyk, back for her 11th year with the club. She's attempting to qualify for her 10th provincial team in the Open 2 category.

New to the Springer team this year are 10-year-olds Ashley Quinn and Amy Williams, who join age-class teammates Christina Shipowick and Kristen Deumer.

All are hoping to earn a team title in the Pre-Novice 1 category.

Also new to the competitive team is Christine Chadwick. The 13-year-old joins Alicia Robinson and Alexis Stoffels in the Junior 1 level.

The trio have their work cut out for them as they challenge 36 other gymnasts in their category for one of only six spots on the Central Region team.

"These girls deserve a lot of credit already for the hard work and dedication they give to their sport. They all put in at least 12 hours a week of training to prepare for competition," said head
