

Milton ladies hang in there

A shortened lineup and top-notch competition kept the Milton Ladies Hockey team out of the winner's circle Wednesday.

The crew entered their mid-week road game as the clear underdogs, since hometown St. Catharines are two classes above them in the "AA" ranks.

As if this didn't present enough of a challenge, "BB" Milton had just half a dozen skaters due to injuries and personal commitments.

They nevertheless persevered and kept the final score quite respectable — losing by a 4-1 count.

Tanya Burton stood tall between the pipes while Melanie Hewitson converted a breakaway for their lone tally.

Assisting on the play was Angela Riebot. Milton lost another close one to Georgetown one night earlier at Memorial.

Their aggressive North Halton rivals jumped out to a two-goal lead in the opening frame and held on to win 3-1.

Joanne Christopher and Anita Mastracci set up Christine Robertson for a third-period powerplay goal to snap Georgetown's shutout bid.

Burton turned in another sound effort in net.

The local ladies team managed to break into the win column during recent tournament play in London where they toppled Port Stanley 4-1.

However, a 4-3 loss to Windsor and a 1-1 tie with Willowdale kept them from advancing past round-robin play.

Milton's home games are Tuesday nights at 8 p.m. at Memorial Arena. Tonight they battle Welland.

Brampton edges Milton

When undefeated teams clash, there's bound to be heartbreak for someone.

Most recently it was the minor peewee Hurricanes who were left regrouping, following a 2-1 loss to unbeaten Brampton.

This snapped their own 10-game undefeated streak.

Ian Boileau was steady in the cage for Halton while Brett Robinson scored their only goal.

Danny Syvret assisted on the play.

The 'Canes were then blanked 4-0 by Burlington in their next outing but quickly rebounded with a 7-2 rout of Oakville.

Kyle Quincey and Marcus Goencz each tallied twice to get their team back on track.
