next spring. Former Milton priest Father Mark Curtis is one of the many performers. For tickets, call 825-4810.

The Women of Note presents Glory Hodie, a recital of Christmas music, at St. Paul's United Church, 123 Main St. E., from 12:10 to 1 p.m. The guest artist is Rosanne Warren. Admission costs $5 per person.

It's Hot Meal Deal Day at the Milton Seniors' Activity Centre, 500 Childs Dr., at 11:45 a.m. The event features a hot lunch and fellowship.

The Milton Seniors' Activity Centre hosts a trip to Casino-Rama. Tickets costs $17, which includes transportation and a buffet luncheon. Call the centre at 875-1681 to sign up.

Help for crime victims wanted

The Victim Services Unit of Halton Regional Police is looking for volunteers.

The main goal of the unit is to assist individuals in dealing with the consequences of victimization.

The tasks of volunteers — caring, sensitive people who offer support to victims of crime and tragedy — may include: interviewing victims, determining victims' needs, making referrals to outside agencies and attending court with victims.

Call Noreen Heaney at 825-4747 ext. 5035.

Gracious gift giving

Light up bulb campaign on

The annual Christmas Buy a Bulb campaign for Milton District Hospital is in full swing.

'Buy a bulb' refers to purchasing the right to have Christmas tree lights turned on on the hospital Christmas tree through a donation. Those giving $10 light one tree bulb, the $50 to $149 range lights a small light string and those giving $150 or more illuminate a large string of lights.

Send donations to the hospital, 30 Derry Road E., Milton, L9T 2X5.
