Sharp shooters abound

Bengals are riding a hot streak

Brookville's scoring depth has come to the forefront through the early going of the north Halton elementary school boys basketball season.

Five different Bengals have scored a minimum of eight points in a game, and paced their troops to three straight victories.

Chris Foster sank 10 last week and paced his team to a 44-34 win over the W.I. Dick Wildcats — whose top shooter, Sean Magee, rang up 14 points.

Martin McIntyre and Jonathan Christink each had eight-point games for Brookville. The school's balanced attack was needed in two close-fought wins the previous week. McIntyre, Christink, Justin Stanley and Stuart Cox all hit double-digits in 37-35 and 31-30 triumphs over Sam Sherratt and Georgetown's Centennial respectively.

W.I. Dick got the better of Brookville in girls hoops last week. Stephanie Lees led offensively with 10 points while Laura Burns and Alex Rundle pumped in eight points each for a 31-17 decision.

Erin Greenfield scored eight points for Brookville, who sit at 1-1 — as does Sam Sherratt, who surrendered to Cheryl Merritt's firepower and also fell to the Wildcats.

Sam Sherratt's lone victory, on the strength of a 14-point performance by Marion Jamieson, came in a 31-16 drubbing to Stewarttown.
