

Milton's gold team stages sweet sweep

Milton Heights Ski Club dished out humble pie to opponents across southern Ontario recently, with their best single-day showing of the still young 1998 campaign.

The Mackenzie Gold Team pulled off a clean sweep at Georgian Peaks — with gold, silver and bronze medal finishes in both male and female competition — and soundly thrashed Beaver Valley 118-78.

May Yee Lim led the way for the girls with a combined time of 62.47 seconds while Meagan Behse and Carly Titus were less than eight clicks behind and rounded out the top three placings.

Mark Curtis posted a 60.74s. finish for first in the boys' loop, edging Greg Cole by three-quarters of a second. Willie Cripps took third.

The Mackenzie Silver Team equaled their golden counterparts' clean sweep in Caledon and came away with a 106-81 triumph over their hosts.

Spencer Grell, Jamie Tracey and Jason Walogara all finished within a second of each other — 61.19, 61.53 and 61.99 seconds respectively — in boys' competition.

Mary Beth Peddie took top marks for the girls with a 64.71 showing. Marianne Leeson and Anna Dyminski placed second and third.

Stacey Minkhorst beat all female challengers in Loretto and led her Mackenzie Bronze Team past Hockley Valley 96-91.

Stephanie Titus placed second and coming in third was Laura Fenn.

Matt Urbanski took second for the boys. Close behind with fourth and fifth place efforts were Michael Wannamaker and Peter Schroeder.

The Hershey Alpine Red and White teams combined for three victories in Mansfield, Horseshoe Valley and Glen Eden the previous weekend.

Leading the charge with two first-place finishes was Kyle Martin while Curtis Von Cube and Julie Lowry were also victorious.

Other top three placings went to Stephanie Grell, Lindsay Ince, Jeremy McClure and Jonathan Stapleton.
