Hot off the press

Canadian Champion news editor Karen Smith recently accepted the You Make a Difference Award from the Milton Fire Department's Mark Cross, in recognition of the newspaper's long-time contribution to fire safety awareness.

Capturing escarpment beauty

Few landscape features offer as much drama as the Niagara Escarpment in southern Ontario, and some of that will be captured on film for a good cause.

The Milton, Oakville and Burlington chapters of Canada Trust's Friends of the Environment Foundation will be helping the Halton Region Conservation Foundation publish a photography book.

The foundation is seeking additional corporate sponsors to help fund the project. Proceeds from the book will be used to renovate and expand the visitor's centre at Mountsberg Wildlife Centre, where more than one million school children and families have learned about the natural environment since 1975.

More information on the book project is available at 336-1158.

Money plan seminar

If you need financial advice — ask the experts.

Free financial seminars are now available every Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the North Halton Golf and Country Club in Georgetown. Developed by Investors Group's Alex McKee, the series will focus in on one topic per week. Areas of discussion will include insurance, estate planning, tax planning and investment.

To register for any seminar or obtain a schedule of weekly topics, call (905) 702-8774.

"Ideal for the child and society in the best of times, Rudolf Steiner's brilliant process of education is critically needed and profoundly relevant at this time of childhood crisis and educational breakdown. Waldorf education nurtures the intellectual, psychological, and spiritual unfolding of the child."
