Teen accosted, money taken

Halton police are looking for a teenaged suspect after money was stolen from a youth's wallet at the Laurier Centre.

A 16-year-old male was approached by another youth at the plaza March 19 shortly after 9 p.m.

The youth asked the victim for money. Intimidated, the victim pulled out his wallet and the suspect took a small amount of cash. He then fled in a car.

The heist is featured in today's Crime Stoppers on page 27.

Special constable injured

A Halton Regional Police escort officer suffered a blow to the head after a prisoner kicked a cell door open March 17.

The officer, who had escorted the prisoner to the Milton court house was opening the holding cell door when it hit him in the head and he fell to the ground. He wasn't seriously injured.

Computers stolen

The Canadian Meter Company on Derry Road was the target of thieves over the weekend.

About $25,000 worth of computer equipment was stolen from the office area between 3 p.m. Sunday and 8 a.m. Monday.

The culprits gained entry by smashing a window.

Police are investigating the well-planned heist.
