stretch — proved to be the difference as McGuaig's outdistanced Michael's Optical, who notched the last two goals to make the final score a little more respectable.

John Walls, Hayley Mouscos, Jonathan Volpe and Blake Martin all contributed to the win with one goal a piece.

Tallying twice for Michael's Optical was Jay Price while D.J. Whitaker and Craig Stover added singles.

Peewee

Austin Noble 12,

Absolute Transportation 1

Austin Noble left no room for doubt as to who the best peewee team was — if any existed beforehand that is.

Goaltender Ben Benson was as lonely as the Maytag repairman, seeing little action as his teammates threw a game-long assault at Absolute Transportation cager Kevin Duggan.

Grabbing the biggest slice of the scoring pie with four goals and two assists each were Josh Rivatt and Justin Stanley.

Richard DeMills was the key set-up man, drawing five assists to go with his one goal.

Absolute Transportation's lone tally came off the stick of Mike Ferrier early in the first.

Bantam

Richardson Chevrolet 4, Towne Dental 2

He may not be the guy who keeps you up late at night, but Richardson's Conan O'Brien was darn entertaining in the cage and helped deliver the victory.

Teammate Matt Craig was just as big a factor with a two-goal performance in the opening frame.

Chipping in singles were Mike Therriault and Mike Radbourn. Brandon Porter drew two assists.

Jamie Whyte and Matt Smith lit the lamp for Towne Dental.
