

Old memories on display

Memories of Milton's past are on display for public viewing. The Milton Historical Society, in conjunction with Archives Awareness Week, holds an open house this morning (Tuesday). From 10 a.m. to noon the public is welcome to peruse fire insurance maps from 1930, old high school yearbooks, photographs of the town's earliest politicians and other historical documents. The Milton Historical Society's archives are housed in the basement of the Milton Seniors' Activity Centre, 500 Childs Dr., at Allendale. Visits are also available through appointment by calling Gail Richardson at 878-0431.

Dateline

Dateline is a free listing of coming events only. The column is available to local community groups to assist in promoting their future events. Only charitable or non-profit community groups may use this service. We can only guarantee one issue of publicity closest to the date of the occurrence although more insertions are possible if demand is low.

Notices for Dateline should be handed in at the office of The Champion, 191 Main St. E., mailed to P.O. Box 248, Milton, Ont., L9T 4N9, or faxed to (905) 878-4943. The final deadline is noon Friday for Tuesday's edition and noon Wednesday for Friday's edition. Dateline items will not be accepted by telephone.
