GRANDPA BAYNTON
It's been a year since you passed away, And I will never forget how much you really did mean to me.
You were not only my grandpa but my best friend and not a day goes by without you on my mind.
The memories you left behind will never be forgotten,
But most of all your spirit will be with me.
Thanks for the great times and the wonderful advice you always gave me.
I will never forget about you and all the good times we had together.
Love always, Tom.

MURRAY - In loving memory of a beloved daughter and sister, Kerri Lynne, suddenly taken from us April 11, 1968 and beloved husband and father James Duff, January 28, 1970.

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
It came to a crevice, followed the light
And unfolded itself on the other side.
The rose still grows beyond the wall.
Our memories we hold dear,
Mom, Richard and Brent.

40 Card of Thanks

THE FAMILY of the late Klass Van Tol Sr. wish to express their thanks to the passing jogger and Kay & Steve Agar who were immediately at Mom's aid during her emergency with dad. The police, ambulance and Scott & Michelle Early & Staff of Scott Early Funeral Home for their kind and efficient work, St. David's Presbyterian Church and staff in Campbellville, Rev. Henry De Korte from the Guelph Reformed Church for the lovely service. Barry Burne of Milton Greenhouses and Mrs. Harris for providing lunch. Neighbours, friends and relatives for their comforting words, cards, flowers and memorial donations and other acts of kindness. He will be sadly missed as a husband, dad, grampa and great grampa.

REMEMBRANCES in the form of donations to The Milton District Hospital Foundation are appreciated.
