MP urges crackdown

costing them more than $7.5 million. Most of the victims were senior citizens.

Ms Torsney said members of parliament have a moral obligation to make changes that reduce victimization.

The bill would also restrict the use of envelopes that include a mimicked government logo.

Private member's bills face difficult obstacles reaching legislative approval. The motion must be drawn in a lottery from among other private bills and then a special committee must determine that it's kept alive for further consideration.

Ms Torsney said she considers the bill to be better than a long shot, because it's simple in its wording and doesn't cost taxpayers any money. Much will depend on whether citizens across Canada support it and speak with their MPs.

Allergy alert for soybeans

The Canadian Food Inspection Agency is warning consumers with an allergy to soybean not to eat Spice Bouquet Brand Simulated Bacon Bits sold in 80-gram plastic containers.

The simulated bacon bits have been found to contain soybean flour which has not been declared on the label.

So far there have been no reported illnesses associated with this product.

The importer, Bensus International of Montreal, is now recalling the affected product.
