Public Meeting

Halton Solid Waste Management Strategy

The Regional Municipality of Halton is inviting all interested individuals and parties to attend the second in a series of Public Meetings to discuss the development of a new Solid Waste Management Strategy for Halton. Representatives from the Region will be on hand to give a presentation and receive your comments and input.

The purpose of this public meeting will be to present Halton's Solid Waste Management Strategy Progress Report No. 1 for public comment. The report summarizes the technical work that has been carried out to date which includes the information gathered from the first public consultations and workshop. As well, potential alternative waste management strategies have been developed from the information received at the public consultations and based on the direction obtained from the public review of these strategies, they will further be developed to include costs and timeframes for implementation to be discussed at a second workshop to be held in September of 1998.

The Public Meeting will be held at the following two locations:

Date: Wednesday June 24, 1998 Place: Bishop Reding Secondary School Lecture Hall 1600 Main Street Milton, Ontario Time: 6:30p.m. - 9:00p.m. Presentation at 7:00p.m.	Date: Thursday June 25, 1998 Place: Regional Administration Building Cafeteria 1151 Bronte Road Oakville, Ontario Time: 6:30p.m. - 9:00p.m. Presentation at 7:00p.m.
