In the closest game of the week it was a knocked down pass by rusher Jeff Turcotte that made the difference.

The defensive specialist also scored one touchdown as did teammates Tony Spagnoli, Panno Tournidis, Rob Houston and Werner Mikoleit.

Waltzing Weasel 34 Halton Pool 21

Randy Sleightholm and Darren Goertzen gave the Weasel their third win of the season, scoring two majors apiece in a hard fought battle with Halton Pool, who are starting to put some numbers on the board and threatening to break out of an early season slump.

The Dickens 58 Bruce Hood Travel 12

Chris Clark and Cory Hewitt exploited Bruce Hood Travel's defence early and often, recording three touchdowns each to work their way back to .500 ball.

Also reaching the end zone for the victors were Aaron Von Eck and Kirk Honey.

a couple of important goals in a big game like this," said the star sophomore, whose now up to 38 goals on the year.

Also instrumental in the comeback with two third-period assists was Fleming, who had a total of six on the night.

Darling and Hartholt showed strongly with two goals each while Paul Wade chipped in a single.

Sophomore tender Kevin Eansor made some exceptional diving saves in the opening frame and was solid over the balance of the contest for his 11th season victory.

Maverick notes: Milton picked up defensive specialist Tony Moser from Spartan just prior to Friday's trade deadline.

The 21-year-old served out a one-game suspension Sunday and will be ready to go this Friday when his new team hosts the winless Brantford Posse at 8 p.m. ... Ian Parker still has one game remaining on a three-game suspension.

Ezard wins in forms as well as in the fights

Paul Ezard had no equals in forms or fighting recently at Summer Slam '98 in Georgetown.

The Fighting Griffin Martial Arts student earned back-to-back first place finishes at the teenage level to lead his club-mates to a highly successful tournament showing.

Sensei Scott Hogarth's wife Tammy was the other victor, winning the adult advanced forms category. Taking third in adult black belt forms was Sandy Graham.

Jeff Schmitz placed second and third in teenage forms and fighting respectively while age class teammate Jordan Lange was close behind with a third in fighting and fifth in forms.

Sandwiched between these two in forms was Connie Graham, who took fourth.

Fighting Griffins' kids-class combatants combined for four top five finishes in forms. Leading the way with second was Joshua Job while Weston Gwilt and Rachel Nadalin placed fourth and Mathew Doering fifth.

D&D deliver

Darlene and Daniel Kelsh provided an overpowering one-two punch for the Milton Jiu-Jitsu Club recently at the Canadian Kobudo Jiu-Jitsu Championships in Hamilton.

The mother-son team buried the competition in their respective sparring classes.

The younger Kelsh also struck silver in kids' grappling.

Their efforts highlighted the club's strong overall performance.

Also capturing gold medals were kids-class competitor Shannon Laing and teenager Darren Gallipeau, prevailing in the light heavyweight black belt division.

Phillip Tingley and Neryhs Hall earned two silvers apiece while Derek Bailey and Fletcher Falls had one each.

Kevin Rae brought home a bronze.

end," she explained.

Nichols is also coached by Dimitrov as well as fellow local instructors Barry Shepaly and Ken Rhodes.

And much like Moncrieff, her biggest concern right now isn't so much training but funding. "The plane ticket alone is going to cost over a thousand dollars. We get some sponsorship from the Fitness Technique but we could still use more."

Veteran Milton racers Harry Barnes and Tina Braam qualified for the World Duathlon Championships as well.
